RE: Open Records request concerning the Brewpub application and supporting documents

Dear Mayor Austin,

On two different occasions, I have made open records requests on behalf of AllOnGeorgia regarding the brewpub in Dallas. I have received from your city attorney 3 responses via certified letter and each letter was in violation of the law. In both a response to Mr. Stinson and in an article published by AllOnGeorgia I detailed the specific violations of his first response. Mr. Stinson's most current response is in violation in the same manner as his previous responses. Your city is currently in violation of the law and I have a complaint filed with the Georgia Attorney General's office. What I am asking for is not a difficult request to fulfill and your attorney is choosing to be obtuse and create a process that is longer than need be due to his refusal to communicate with a method other than a certified letter. Therefore, I will no longer respond to him via letter. I will email you, the city clerk and the city manager. Furthermore, anyone who looks at my requests knows what I am after, from this point forward I will simply file an additional complaint with the AG office for every 24 hour period your city remains in violation.
