Kim Adams

Zelda Sumner

KorAnn Trammel were present.

Mrs. Trammell:

You are being provided this reprimand letter for insubordination.

You refused to comply with your supervisors (Mayor Kim Adams) request on numerous occasions. You have been told when someone calls and ask for Chief Chris Chavis if he is not in the office to tell them he's not in and ask if they would like to leave a name and number, instead of doing as told you have chosen to continue to tell people that you have no idea where he is or how to get a hold of him and that you don't even know if he is working. As you have been told and know Chief Chavis is on call 24 hours a day 7 days a week and you can contact him by cell phone. You are still telling people "well I'm not supposed to tell you I don't know where he is". Also you and Chief Chavis had an altercation during which time Mayor Adams and Councilman L. Sumner were present. Chief Chavis walked out the building and you were still fussing. Mayor Adams told you several times to hush about it and you continued to fuss.

The city of Adrian will not tolerate this kind of attitude and insubordination.

Ms. Trammell, if any time in the future you refuse to take direction from anyone in a leadership position at the City of Adrian you will be subject to immediate dismissal. The only exception to this would be if you are directed to perform a task that is illegal, immoral, or unsafe.
