Stacey on the issues

As governor, Stacey will work to create a Georgia where everyone has an opportunity to thrive.

Defending Working Families: As a leader in the State Legislature, Stacey fought to protect workers' rights to collectively negotiate a fair return on their work and end employee misclassification. As governor, she will fight to expand tax credits for working families and invest in a jobs plan that will grow our infrastructure and create high-wage jobs in every county. Expanding Health Care: Stacey will make a full Medicaid investment one of her first priorities in Georgia. She knows this will lower health care costs for Georgians, create tens of thousands of jobs and prevent further closings of rural hospitals. [Albany Herald, 4/3/18]

Protecting Public Education: She'll fight for fully-funded, excellent public schools. Alongside 60% of Georgians, Stacey opposed the scheme to sell off Georgia's public schools to private interests. She also helped save the HOPE Scholarship and plans to expand the scholarship to be more accessible to all Georgians. [StaceyAbrams.com, accessed 9/8/18]
