Arrest Made for Murder in Tattnall County

Collins, GA (April 17, 2019) – On Wednesday, April 17, 2019, the Georgia Bureau of Investigation (GBI) arrested Rashaun McRae, age 20, on charges of Murder for the death of Elroy Miller, age 58.

On Wednesday, April 17, 2019, the GBI was requested by the Tattnall County Sheriff's Office to assist with a death investigation. At approximately 12:17 a.m., on April 17, 2019, Tattnall County EMS responded to a call of an unresponsive person at 5685 Highway 292, Collins, Tattnall County, Georgia. Upon arrival, the deceased subject (Miller) was located. Miller was pronounced deceased on scene by the Tattnall County Coroner. Tattnall Sheriff's Office had previously responded to a domestic violence incident earlier in the same evening involving Miller, McRae and a female.

Miller's body will be transported to the GBI Crime Lab for an autopsy to determine cause of death. Anyone with information concerning the investigation should call the Tattnall County Sheriff's Office at (912) 557-6777 or the GBI Statesboro office at (912) 871-1121.
