16-9-33 FINANCIAL TRANSACTION CARD FRAUD

INCIDENT NARRATIVE:

On 7/13/2020, at 17:27 hours, Deputy Rhett Kelley took a report by phone regarding a suspicious incident. The victim stated he has been in the hospital since 6/28/2020 and that an unknown offender has used his debit card to make three withdrawals from an ATM, possibly at the Fast N Easy store on Lanier Drive. The victim stated he was advised of the withdrawals by his bank when he called to check his balance. The victim was not able to provide any other details regarding the withdrawals. The victim stated that he went in the hospital, but left his wallet home. The victim stated that his son, Jules Lee, stated that he looked throughout their residence for the wallet and debit card, but was unable to find it. The victim believes someone may have taken his wallet while he has been in the hospital. The victim stated that he had his bank to deactivate the debit card. The victim was advised that the incident would be documented and was also advised on how to obtain a copy of this report.
