Georgia Returns To The SEC Championship Game

The Bulldogs will be making their ninth appearance in the game, and they are 3-5 including winning the 2017 title over No. 4 Auburn. The Bulldogs have won or shared the SEC Eastern Division title 11 times (1992, 2002, '03, '05, '07, '11, '12, '17, '18, 19, '21). In 1992, UF won the tiebreaker over UGA to represent the East in the SECCG and the same went for UT in 2007.

The Bulldogs will be aiming for their 14th SEC title in school history. Georgia's SEC titles have come in 1942-46-48-59-66-68-76-80-81-82-02-05-17. In the league, Georgia's 13 SEC titles trails only Alabama's 28.

Series History

Alabama leads the all-time series with Georgia 41-25-4. Georgia won the first meeting, coming in 1895, with a 30-6 triumph in Columbus. The Crimson Tide have won the past six meetings, including last year's regular season matchup in Tuscaloosa. This marks the third time the teams have met in the SEC Championship Game.

Dogs Atop The Polls

For a school record eighth straight week, Georgia is the unanimous No. 1 team in the AP and Coaches polls. Currently, Georgia is ranked No. 1 in the College Football Playoff poll. The fifth 2021 CFP ranking will be released on Tuesday. Georgia is 4-0 versus ranked teams, including a pair of top-10 wins.

Aiming For An Elite Finish

This is the first time since 1980 that the Bulldogs are 12-0. Georgia became only the fourth team in school history to finish a regular season undefeated and untied with double-digit victories (1946, 1980, 1982). Prior to this season, Vince Dooley's 1980 consensus national champions was the last Georgia squad to go 12-0 after defeating Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl. Incidentally, the school record for wins in a season is 13, and that's been done twice (2002 under Mark Richt and 2017 under Kirby Smart).

Dominating Defense & Offense Delivering Points

* Georgia leads the nation in Scoring Defense giving up just 6.9 points per game. The Bulldogs are averaging 40.7 points per game, which is ranked sixth nationally.

* The Bulldogs have only trailed four times this year. The first time was at No. 18 Auburn when the Tigers kicked a field goal in the first quarter. Georgia trailed in that game for 5:29. Following the Tigers' score, the Bulldogs reeled off 24 straight points. The second instance happened in the first quarter against Missouri following a field goal. The Bulldogs trailed for 5:08 in that contest. Georgia then went on a 40-0 run. At UT, Georgia fell behind 7-0 in the first quarter for 2:33 before tying the game. The Volunteers reclaimed a 10-7 advantage later in the quarter and led for another 7:07. Georgia responded by scoring 34 unanswered points in an eventual 41-17 victory.

* The defense has allowed an FBS low seven touchdowns while the unit has scored three TDs. The defense did not allow a touchdown until the third game of the season and that came in the fourth quarter versus USC with the Bulldogs leading 40-6. The second came at No. 18 AU with Georgia leading 24-3. No. 11 Kentucky had two scores, including the final one with :04 left. Florida scored with 2:49 left in the game with Georgia leading 27-0. UT managed a first quarter TD and built a 10-7 lead before Georgia stormed back. By the way, UAB's TD came on a pick-six while CSU's was a 65-yard fumble return after a Bulldog interception.

* Georgia opponents have scored only 83 points in 2021. Clemson's opponents have the next fewest points in the FBS at 180.

Head Football Coach

Four SEC Eastern Division championships, 64 wins, one SEC title, four bowl victories, and an appearance in one national championship game are more than respectable rewards over a six-year period. That's what Georgia got when it hired former Bulldog player and assistant coach Kirby Smart to head the program in December, 2015.

The 2021 team will be Smart's fifth straight team to finish in the top 10 of the College Football Playoff rankings, earn a New Years Six bowl game and fourth appearance in the SEC Championship Game. The '21 team became the first UGA team to win 12 games in the regular season and first since 1982 to go undefeated in the regular season.

The 2020 Bulldogs navigated the Covid-19 pandemic into an 8-2 conference-only record and Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl victory over undefeated Cincinnati. The 2020 Bulldog senior class tied the record for the most wins by a senior class in school history (44), set by the 2005 and 2019 teams. That was also Smart's fourth straight team to finish the regular season ranked in the top ten of the College Football Playoff rankings.

Smart's 2019 Bulldogs became the first team in school history to win 11 or more games for a third straight season. The senior class posted a four-year record of 44-12, matching the school record of 44 wins for a senior class. Georgia defeated three Top 15 teams in the final CFP ranking — Notre Dame, Florida, and Auburn — and finished as the fourth-ranked team in the final polls. The season was capped by a dominant win over Baylor in the Allstate Sugar Bowl.

When UGA looked for a head coach after the 2015 season, the arrows pointed to Kirby Smart, longtime Alabama defensive coordinator and former UGA player and assistant. The 2017 Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year has not disappointed.

In his first year leading the Bulldogs, Georgia extended its school record to 20 consecutive bowl appearances and had wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 UNC.

In 2017, Smart directed UGA to a 13-2 record, an SEC title, a win at The Rose Bowl Game during the CFP semifinal and a spot in the National Championship. He was named the Maxwell Football Club's George Munger National Coach of the Year. Before 2017, the Bulldogs last SEC title was 2005.

The 2018 and 2019 Bulldogs advanced to the SEC title game, secured an invite to the Sugar Bowl and combined for a 23-5 record.

He has also made an immediate impact in recruiting, posting the nation's No. 1 class in 2018, the second-ranked class in 2019 and the third-ranked class in 2017 and 2020.

Bennett 12-2 As A Starter at Georgia

*Senior Stetson Bennett, a native of Blackshear, Ga., who is a Burlsworth Trophy finalist, began his career with the Bulldogs as a walk-on in 2017 when he was redshirted. Bennett transferred to Jones College (Miss.) where he started in 2018 and then returned to the Bulldogs on scholarship in 2019. He saw action that season in five games including throwing passes in four of them. In 2020, he started five games.

*In his Bulldog career, Bennett is 12-2 and has completed 61 percent of his passes (225-for-365 3,424 yards, 31 TDs, 12 INTs). Also, he has 60 rushing attempts for 271 yards and four scores.

* In 2021, Bennett has played in 11 games (9-0 as a starter) and is 119-for-183 (65.0%) for 1,985 yards with 21 TDs and five INTs. He has 38 carries for 240 yards.

*He ranks 2nd nationally in Passing Efficiency (188.5). The school record in that category belongs to Aaron Murray at 174.8 in 2012.

JT Daniels started the season behind center but was sidelined versus UAB due to a lat injury. Bennett stepped in and started that game. Daniels returned against South Carolina and then left the Vanderbilt game after the first quarter with an aggravation of his injury. Bennett played most of the Vanderbilt game and then has served as the starter since the Oct. 2 win over No. 8 Arkansas.

*Bennett helped Georgia complete a historic 8-0 SEC regular season and its first undefeated regular season since 1982.

*In the 30-13 win over No. 11 Kentucky, Bennett was on the mark in the second half, completing 9 of 10 passes for 174 yards and two touchdowns. He earned a spot on the Davey O'Brien Award's Great 8 list after finishing with 250 yards passing and three TDs.

*Bennett enjoyed a career a record-setting performance torching the Blazers for a school record tying five TDs (all in the first half). He finished the day 10-for-12 for 288 yards with his scoring strikes covering 9, 12, 61, 73 and 89 yards. Bennett was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Week as well as to the Davey O'Brien Award's Great 8 list following his performance.

*In 2020, Bennett made his first career start and led the Bulldogs to a 27-6 win over #7 Auburn in Athens.

*Ties school record; Career highs in italics

Productive Start To Bowers' Career

* Freshman TE Brock Bowers has a team-best 37 catches for 652 yards and 11 touchdowns (10 rec., one rush). Bowers' 10 TD catches is one shy of the school record held by SE Terrence Edwards in 2002.

* Bowers has already set a school record for most TD catches for a TE in a season with 10 and also owns Georgia's No. 1 mark in yards for a TE in a season with 652.

* Some notables from Bowers first season include: three 100-yard games; four touchdown receptions of 25+ yards; his first touchdown catch of his career was an 89 yarder from Stetson Bennett versus UAB, this was the ninth-longest passing TD in school history; had a 12-yard rushing touchdown on his first career carry at Vanderbilt, was the leading receiver with four catches for 69 yards and two touchdowns and was named the SEC Freshman of the Week; was the team leader with six catches for 101 yards and two touchdowns against No. 11 Kentucky and was named SEC Freshman of the Week yet again as well as Mackey Award Tight End of the Week; had a 77-yard scoring reception from Bennett at Georgia Tech.

Sharing The Load At RB

* Seniors Zamir White (128 attempts, 691 yards, 10 TDs) and James Cook (90 att., 581 yds., 7 TDs) split a majority of the carries.

* White has led the team in rushing in six games while Cook has done it four times. Fellow senior Kenny McIntosh and sophomore Kendall Milton led the Bulldogs in rushing the other two games. White had 14 carries and went for 105 yards (7.5 per carry) and a TD in the win over Florida. His performance featured a 42-yard touchdown run, which is the longest rush for the Bulldogs this season.

* Cook finished with a career-high 104 rushing yards and three scores (2 rush, 1 rec.) in the victory over UT. Also, he led the team with 87 yards on 12 carries (7.2 avg.) against No. 8 Arkansas. Against Missouri, his one touchdown came out of the "Wild Dawg" formation.

* McIntosh got his first start at Georgia Tech and carried the ball twice for 66 yards, including a season-long 59-yard touchdown scamper.

* White, McIntosh and sophomore Daijun Edwards all scored rushing touchdowns at Vanderbilt, along with WR Ladd McConkey and TE Brock Bowers.

A Look At The Offensive Line

* Senior Jamaree Salyer (LT), junior Warren Ericson (LG), redshirt freshman Sedrick Van Pran (C), fifth-year senior Justin Shaffer (RG) and redshirt sophomore Warren McClendon (RT) comprised the starting lineup for a seven-game stretch until the Missouri game on Nov. 6. Then, redshirt freshman Broderick Jones filled in for Salyer the last four games of the regular season due to a foot injury. In the season opener versus No. 3 Clemson, redshirt freshman Tate Ratledge started the opener at LG. A foot injury has kept him out since that game.

* The unit has been honored as Joe Moore Award semifinalists and helped the team post a season-high 274 rushing yards in the win over Tennessee.

* The unit has only allowed eight sacks this year. That leads the SEC and ranks second nationally, trailing only Army (six in 11 games) who runs the flexbone triple-option offense and has attempted an FBS-low 85 passes this year.

* Georgia focused on the rushing game versus No. 8 Arkansas and finished with 56 attempts for 273 yards (4.9 yards/rush) and three touchdowns. This was the most rushing attempts in a game during the Kirby Smart era.

* At No. 18 Auburn, the Bulldogs rushing attack picked up steam in the second half, gaining 165 yards to finish with 201 in the 34-10 win. Jones also filled in at LT in this game after Salyer went down with an ankle injury.

Ton Of Targets

* The Bulldogs are still aiming to get 100 percent healthy at receiver. George Pickens made his 2021 debut against Georgia Tech following offseason knee surgery and had a catch for five yards. In the win over the Yellow Jackets, Georgia's first nine completions went to nine different Bulldogs. The Bulldogs spread the ball around, including 11 different receivers hauling in passes versus Missouri.

* Arian Smith went down with a leg injury following the Missouri win and has missed the last three games.

* Dominick Blaylock made his season debut against Charleston Southern in his first action since the 2019 SEC Championship Game. He had two catches for 11 yards and two punt returns versus CSU.

* Prior to the victory over Missouri, Georgia had been leaning on junior Kearis Jackson, redshirt freshman Ladd McConkey and true freshman AD Mitchell.

* In the road win over UT, Mitchell led the group with a career-high five catches for 65 yards as nine different Bulldogs caught a pass.

* Georgia's leading receivers have been freshman TE Brock Bowers (37 rec., 652 yds., 10 TDs), McConkey (26-395-4), Mitchell (24-334-2) and Burton (20-376-4).

* Jackson accounted for 97 all-purpose yards in the rout over Florida. He had a team-leading three catches for 59 yards and a touchdown while also taking care of return duties with a total of two returns. Jackson's 36-yard touchdown catch (his first of the year) before halftime put the Bulldogs up 17-0.

* During the victory at No. 18 Auburn, McConkey hauled in a career-high five catches for 135 yards and a career-long 60-yard touchdown. He became the third Bulldog this year to have a receiving and rushing touchdown in the same game during the win at Vanderbilt. Both he and Bowers accomplished the feat versus the Commodores while senior RB James Cook did it against South Carolina and at Tennessee.

* Cook, who has 17 catches for 129 yards and three touchdowns this year, tallied a team-best 147 all-purpose yards in the win at UT.

One Of Country's Top Punting Units

* Senior punter and 2020 Ray Guy Award finalist Jake Camarda was the SEC Special Teams Player of the Year last season. He posted an SEC best 46.6 average that ranked fourth in the country and was named a FWAA Second-Team All-American. Camarda was a preseason All-American at his position in 2021.

* This year, Camarda is averaging 45.5 yards/punt placing 12 inside in the 20 and 13 have been 50+. Camarda's career average of 45.7 is on pace for a school record. Drew Butler, the 2009 Ray Guy Award winner, owns the Bulldog record with a 45.4 mark.

* Camarda is also handling most of the UGA kickoffs this year.

Jack-Pod

* For his career, junior PK Jack Podlesny is 30-for-37 on field goals and 99-for-100 on PATs. This year, he is 17-for-21 on FGs and 61-for-62 on PATs. Podlesny capped his first year by earning Offensive MVP honors at the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. In the 24-21 win over #8 Cincinnati, Podlesny accounted for 10 points, including the game-winning 53-yard FG with three seconds remaining.

* Georgia entered the 2021 season with the NCAA record for Consecutive PATs Made. The streak ended with a miss versus No. 11 Kentucky at 363 and involved six kickers (Marshall Morgan, Patrick Belless, William Ham, David Marvin, Rodrigo Blankenship and Podlesny). The streak dated back to 2014.

* Georgia's snappers this year include returning starters junior Payne Walker and redshirt sophomore William Mote. Walker snaps on field goals and PATs while Mote handles the snaps for punts.

Dominant 'D'

* Georgia's opponents have scored only 83 points, the next fewest allowed by an FBS team is Clemson at 180.

* Georgia has held 10 of its opponents to a season low in points with USC (13) and Tennessee (17) the only exceptions.

* Georgia is the only FBS team to hold opposing offenses out of the end zone in six games this season.

* No. 3 Clemson's three points were the fewest in the Dabo Swinney era and lowest since 2007 against Georgia Tech, a 13-3 loss under Tommy Bowden.

* No. 11 Arkansas was shutout for the first time since 2018.

* Florida's seven points were the fewest in the Dan Mullen era and lowest since 2017 versus Georgia, a 42-7 loss under Jim McElwain.

Creating Havoc Again In 2021

* Defensive coordinator Dan Lanning, a 2021 Broyles Award semifinalist, is now in his fourth year and the Bulldogs feature the nation's top Scoring Defense allowing just 6.9 points/game. Georgia is 2nd nationally in Passing Defense (151.6), 3rd in Rushing Defense (79.0) and 5th in Sacks (41).

*Georgia leads the country in Red Zone defense. Opponents have advanced to the Red Zone only 22 times this season and nine times have come away with no points.

*The defense has allowed 7 TDs this year while it has scored 3 TDs.

*In six games this year, Georgia has not allowed an offensive TD and that leads all of FBS.

*Six times this year UGA has carried a shutout to the 4th quarter.

*Posted shutouts versus No. 8 Arkansas and at Georgia Tech and Vanderbilt.

*Florida avoided being shutout when it scored with 2:49 left in the contest in a 34-7 loss to the Bulldogs.

Playmakers In The Secondary

* While some may refer to Georgia as "RBU", one could make a case for "DBU" with the recent Bulldogs now in the NFL including four who were drafted last season (Eric Stokes, 1st Round, Green Bay; Tyson Campbell, 2nd Round, Jacksonville; Richard LeCounte, 5th round, Cleveland; Mark Webb, 7th round, L.A. Chargers).

* Junior safety Lewis Cine ranks third on the squad with 54 tackles. Cine had a team-high nine tackles and two pass breakups in the road win over No. 18 Auburn.

* Christopher Smith scored the only TD in the win over No. 3 Clemson on a 74-yard interception return (the first pick of his career). He earned SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors after that. Smith has missed the last two games with an injury.

* Seniors Latavious Brini and Ameer Speed along with redshirt freshman Kelee Ringo are manning the cornerback spots for the Bulldogs this season. Ringo had a career-high seven tackles against No. 11 Kentucky, including his first career sack.

* Walk-on redshirt sophomore Dan Jackson got his first start versus No. 11 Kentucky while Smith was out with a shoulder injury. Jackson has been the team's leading tackler twice this season. During the 37-0 win over No. 8 Arkansas, he blocked a punt in the first quarter that was recovered by Zamir White in the end zone for a touchdown to put Georgia up 21-0.

* Rounding out the defensive backfield is former All-ACC First Team selection Derion Kendrick (Clemson). He has started all 12 games with 32 stops and two picks.

Making An Impact Up Front

* Preseason All-American Jordan Davis joins fifth-year Devonte Wyatt and sophomore Jalen Carter as the veterans in the center of the defensive line. Davis is a finalist for the Outland Trophy, Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Chuck Bednarik Award. This season, the three Bulldogs have tallied 18 tackles for loss, 7.5 sacks, one blocked FG, one blocked PAT and a fumble recovery. Davis scored his first career touchdown on a carry from the 1 yard line against CSU.

* The trio is joined by versatile junior Travon Walker who has started all 12 games. Walker has 30 stops, 5.5 TFLs and four sacks.

* Against No. 11 Kentucky, Carter posted six stops, including a sack and 1.5 tackles for loss, and blocked the final extra point attempt.

That performance earned him SEC DL of the Week.

* In the shutout of No. 8 Arkansas, Wyatt led the team with six tackles and 1.5 sacks and was named the SEC DL of the Week.

* Davis, Wyatt and Carter bursts onto the national scene in the opener versus No. 3 Clemson. The trio combined for eight tackles, including three tackles for loss and two sacks, and a pass breakup. Davis was named the Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week as well as the SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week after his effort against the Tigers.

Bulldog Backers Flying Around

* Senior ILB Channing Tindall leads the team in tackles with 57. He earned Walter Camp Defensive Player of the Week honors on Nov. 14 after his game at Tennessee (eight tackles, three sacks, forced fumble).

* Junior Nakobe Dean ranks second in tackles with 56. A semifinalist for the 2020 Butkus Award, he has recently been selected as a 2021 finalist for the Butkus and Wuerffel Trophy and semifinalist for the Bednarik awards as well. He is the leader of the 2021 defense. Dean had seven tackles and returned his second career interception 50 yards for a touchdown against Florida. The pick-six capped a flurry of big plays by the Bulldogs who scored 21 points in a span of two minutes and nine seconds to build a 24-0 halftime advantage. Georgia scored three touchdowns off three turnovers and needed just two offensive plays.

* Senior Quay Walker ranks fourth on the team with 51 stops. He posted a career-high 13 stops against the Gators.

* Junior Nolan Smith is one of two linebackers on the outside. He has 39 stops and five tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks to go along with a blocked punt versus Missouri.

* Smith finished with four stops, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and his first career interception during the win over Florida and was named SEC Defensive Player of the Week.

Bulldogs Lead Nation In Scoring Defense

Since the arrival of Kirby Smart in 2016, the Bulldogs have featured talented defenses, and the 2021 edition could be the best one yet. From 2016-2018, Mel Tucker served as the defensive coordinator before leaving to take the head coaching job at Colorado State (now at Michigan St.). Dan Lanning is in his fourth year at UGA (2018, OLB coach), including his third season as the Fain and Billy Slaughter Defensive Coordinator.

Dawgs For Pups

The Bulldog football team initiated the Dawgs For Pups program over the last year to embrace the act of serving the Athens community and beyond and the early results have been overwhelming. The players and staff helped raise more than $100,000 for wireless cards that area kindergarten through eighth grade students could use for virtual learning; collected nearly 30,000 pounds of food for local food banks; made a donation of more than 400 coats to those who were in need during the winter season; and adopted 100 families to buy Christmas presents for, among other projects; held a bookbag drive in the community for students in the Athens-Clarke County area prior to the start of the 2021-22 academic year.

The latest project that was launched was an initiative with a community connection drive to support Family Promise of Athens and the Food Bank of Northeast Georgia. Family Promise of Athens seeks to help families in crisis situations of homelessness achieve sustainable independence, while the Food Bank of Northeast Georgia works to target the root causes of hunger and malnutrition by providing healthy food, nutrition education, and innovative distribution methods.

The drive will run Nov. 15-Dec. 3, and community donations may be made at Family Promise of Athens and Food Bank of Northeast Georgia.

Smarts Commit $1 Million

Head football coach Kirby Smart and his wife, Mary Beth, donated $1 million to their alma mater in September 2020 to support the UGA Athletic Association's new social justice program, create scholarships for senior student-athletes whose final seasons were impacted by COVID-19, and contribute to the expansion of the UGA football program.

The Smarts joined then Detroit Lions quarterback and former UGA standout Matthew Stafford and his wife, Kelly, to endow UGA Athletics' new social justice program.

Georgia Clinches Fourth SEC Eastern Division Title In Five Years

The Bulldogs clinched a spot in the 2021 SEC Championship Game with their 34-7 win over Florida. Georgia tied the record for the earliest date (Oct. 30) in league history to clinch, joining Auburn (2004) and Alabama (1993). This will mark the Bulldogs' fourth trip to the SECCG in the last five years (2017-19) during Kirby Smart's sixth year as head coach. Georgia will make its ninth appearance in the SECCG where the Bulldogs are 3-5, winning titles in 2002, 2005 and 2017.

This year, Georgia registered an 8-0 SEC mark for the first time in school history. The average margin of victory in these games was 31.9 points. For the third time in the Kirby Smart era, Georgia went a perfect 6-0 against teams from the Eastern Division.

Georgia now has completed league play undefeated eight times. The 1959 SEC Champions went 7-0 in the league while the 1946, 1949 and 1966 Bulldog teams went 5-0 in the SEC. The 1980-81-82 Bulldogs all finished SEC play 6-0. The SEC went to an eight-game league slate when it split into divisions in 1992.

No. 5 Georgia 10, No. 3 Clemson 3

Sept. 5, 2021 • Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, N.C.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - The fifth-ranked Georgia Bulldogs opened their 2021 season with a 10-3 victory over the third-ranked Clemson Tigers before of 74,187 fans at Bank of America Stadium and an ABC nationally-televised audience on Saturday evening.

Georgia opened the contest with excellent special teams play as senior punter Jake Camarda pinned the Tigers deep in their own territory twice. The Georgia defense forced Clemson to back-to-back three-and-outs to open the game in partial to sacks by junior linebackers Nakobe Dean and Nolan Smith. The ensuing Georgia drive led to a 35-yard field goal attempt by junior place-kicker Jack Podlesny. The kick missed wide left.

After holding the Tigers to another three-and-out, Will Spiers' punt deflected off of sophomore running back Kendall Milton. The Tigers recovered the ball at midfield, giving them the first turnover of the game. Five plays later Bulldogs defensive back Christopher Smith broke on a slant route and took the interception 74-yards to the house, marking the game's only touchdown.

In the Bulldogs' opening drive of the third quarter, junior quarterback JT Daniels was picked off by Clemson linebacker Baylon Spector at the Georgia 33-yard line. This marked Clemson's best starting field position of the game, however, back-to-back sacks on second and third down forced the Tigers out of field goal range.

The next Georgia drive was sparked by an explosive 22-yard run by junior tailback Zamir White. 10-plays and 59-yards later, a 22-yard chip-shot by Podlesny, gave the Bulldogs a 10-0 lead. The Tigers answered with their own 10-play, 82-yard drive to get on the scoreboard, thanks to a 22-yard field goal by B.T. Potter.

After going three-and-out, Georgia's defense stepped up and held Clemson to fourth-and-5 at the Georgia 45-yard line. The Bulldogs sent the house and forced Clemson quarterback DJ Uiagalelei to throw under distress. After a turnover on downs, the Georgia offense found its legs and ran out the last 4:49 on the clock behind its stable of running backs.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I said all along, no matter if we won or lost, we control our own destiny. We always control our own destiny. We have a lot to improve on, especially offensively...We took a hard look (at the defense) in the offseason. We gave up a lot more that we should have. We dumbed some things down and let the kids play and let the kids rush. We give ourselves credit, but give them some credit too. I'm proud of how they played...The joy in the locker room is so pure. They love it and they love each other. This is a special team and they fought their tail off."

- With the victory, Georgia improved to 98-27-3 in season openers, including 6-0 under head coach Kirby Smart. The win marked the end of Clemson's 10-game win streak against SEC opponents in the regular season dating back to 2014.

- With the 10-3 win, Georgia is now 11-6 in top-10 matchups under Kirby Smart. This matches Georgia's highest ranked win under Smart as the Bulldogs defeated No. 2 Oklahoma (54-48 in 2OT) in a CFP semifinal at the 2018 Rose Bowl Game. Georgia's last win over a top-10 team came to end the 2020 season when the Bulldogs posted a 24-21 win over previously undefeated No. 8 Cincinnati in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. The last time Georgia posted back-to-back wins over top-10 teams came during the 2018 season, beating No. 9 Florida, 36-7, in Jacksonville and then No. 9 Kentucky, 34-17, in Lexington to clinch an SEC East Division title.

- The seven sacks were the most since a school-record eight in its last game, the 2021 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl win over No. 8 Cincinnati. Georgia also had eight sacks in 2008 Sugar Bowl win over Hawaii. Georgia blanked the Tigers in the first half, and the last time Georgia did that in a game was in the 2020 Sugar Bowl against Baylor when the Bulldogs led, 19-0, and went on to win, 26-14.

- The Clemson series dates back to 1897, and with the 10-7 victory, the Bulldogs hold a 43-18-4 advantage including 7-1-1 at neutral sites. The previous neutral site games came in Augusta (Ga.) and Anderson (S.C.) back in the early 1900s. This game was the first meeting when both teams were ranked in the top five. The previous best was in 2013 when No. 8 Clemson beat No. 5 Georgia 38-35 in Clemson. In top-25 matchups, Georgia is now 3-2 against the Tigers.

- Georgia had seven first-time starters: true freshman Ladd McConkey (WR), true freshman Brock Bowers (TE), redshirt freshman Tate Ratledge (RG), redshirt freshman Sedrick Van Pran (C), junior Travon Walker (DE), senior Ameer Speed (CB), plus the first at Georgia for senior transfer Derion Kendrick (CB).

Christopher Smith's 74-yard interception return broke a scoreless tie and was the only touchdown for either team.

No. 2 Georgia 56, UAB 7

Sept. 12, 2021 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. - The second-ranked Georgia Bulldogs opened their 2021 home season with a resounding 56-7 victory over the UAB Blazers before a sell-out crowd of 92,746 fans at Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium and an ESPN2 nationally-televised audience Saturday afternoon.

Georgia took little time getting on the scoreboard as Stetson Bennett found wideout Jermaine Burton for a 73-yard touchdown pass on the second play from scrimmage. On their ensuing drive, the Bulldogs added to their margin with a 12-yard touchdown pass from Stetson Bennett to tailback Kenny McIntosh. UAB neared midfield on their following possession, but its momentum was halted as safety Lewis Cine picked off Ty Johnston, III at the Georgia 22-yard line. Late in the first quarter, Bennett posted his third touchdown of the quarter as he connected with tight end Brock Bowers on an 89-yard catch-and-run.

In the second quarter, Georgia once again scored on its first play of the drive as Bennett hit wide receiver Arian Smith on a 61-yard deep ball. The Bulldogs' defense remained stout, continuously forcing the Blazers to punt. After returner Kearis Jackson's 33-yard punt return, Georgia extended its lead when Bennett again found Bowers alone in the end zone for a 9-yard touchdown with just over a minute before halftime.

The scoring onslaught continued in the third quarter as Cook evaded multiple tacklers for a 14-yard touchdown run. On the next UAB drive, cornerback Kelee Ringo picked off Johnston at the Georgia 40-yard line, leading to a 12-yard touchdown pass from reserve quarterback Carson Beck to wideout Justin Robinson, extending the lead to 49-0. On Georgia's next drive, the Bulldogs set up first-and-goal at the 2-yard line, but a fumbled snap and missed field goal finished the drive without points. Fortunately, linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson scored Georgia's final touchdown of the day with a 20-yard pick-six. The Blazers would haul in an interception return of their own as safety Keondre Swoopes took Beck's pass to the house midway through the fourth quarter.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I would like to open with thanks to our fans. What a tremendous fan base we have, and they turned out. I thought it was really awesome. Incredible atmosphere to come back and play in. You don't realize what you got until it's gone sometimes, so I certainly missed that...We have a lot of young players who are trying to grow up and we thought it would give a calming effect to have (Bennett) in with his experience and his ability to play in games. You know he played really well. I am proud of the way he handled it well...No one has been better to the University of Georgia than Stetson Bennett."

Stetson Bennett returned to the starting quarterback role and tied a school record with five touchdown passes.

- For the second straight week, Georgia's defense did not allow any points through the first three quarters after shutting out No. 3 Clemson in a 10-3 win in Charlotte. This game was the first time since 2019 that Georgia posted back-to-back first half shutouts, doing it against Missouri and at Auburn. Georgia would beat Missouri in Athens, 27-0, and the Tigers, 21-14, on the Plains. At 35-0, Georgia posted its biggest halftime lead since a 42-7 advantage over Murray State in 2019. Through two games, Georgia's opponents have been held to just 10 points, the lowest since 2003 when they had 10.
- At the half, Georgia senior starting QB Stetson Bennett was 7-for-8 for 260 yards with a school-record tying and career-high 5 TD passes among his eight completions for a 35-0 lead. He completed his first five passes for 245 yards. Today's TD passes by him covered 73, 12, 88, 61 and 9 yards. He tied the school record for TD passes in a game when he connected with freshman TE Brock Bowers (3-for-107, 2 TDs) for a nine-yarder. He became the sixth Bulldog with five TD passes in a game, and the first to do it since Aaron Murray vs New Mexico State in 2011, also doing it in the first half.
- Georgia registered its 20th score on defense or special teams in the Kirby Smart era (since 2016) when freshman Jamon Dumas-Johnson scored from 20 yards on an INT in the fourth quarter. It was the sixth pick-six in the Smart era including second this season. There have been 17 TDs and three safeties. In games with a non-offensive score by Georgia, the Bulldogs are 17-1 under Smart.

Sept. 19, 2021 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. - The second-ranked Georgia Bulldogs opened Southeastern Conference play with a dominating 40-13 win over the South Carolina Gamecocks before a sell-out crowd of 92,746 fans at Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium and an ESPN nationally-televised audience Saturday afternoon.

Returning from injury, quarterback JT Daniels connected on a 21-yard pass to tight end Brock Bowers on the first play from scrimmage before tailback James Cook scampered for a 23-yard touchdown. On the following drive, South Carolina used a 61-yard completion to get on the board with an ensuing 37-yard field goal. Georgia responded quickly as Daniels hit wide receiver Jermaine Burton for a 43-yard touchdown. Near the end of the first quarter, the Gamecocks would strike again with another field goal, set up by an interception thrown by reserve quarterback Stetson Bennett.

In the second quarter, Georgia extended its drive with a pair of third-and-long conversions, leading to a 38-yard touchdown pass from Daniels to wideout Adonai Mitchell, the first of the freshman's career. As the clock neared halftime, the Bulldogs took control of the game with a critical sequence showcasing all three phases of the game. Punter Jake Camarda's 42 yard punt was downed at the 1-yard line, leading to nose tackle Jordan Davis sacking Gamecock quarterback Luke Doty in the end zone for a safety. Following the resulting free kick, the Bulldogs quickly moved into field goal position with kicker Jack Podlesny booting a 36-yarder as the first half clock expired.

Following an interception by cornerback Derion Kendrick on the first drive of the second half, tailback Zamir White extended the lead with a 15-yard touchdown run. On the ensuing drive, Doty fumbled on a strip-sack recovered by linebacker Quay Walker, leading to a 4-yard touchdown pass from Daniels to Cook. In the fourth quarter, the Georgia defense allowed its first touchdown of the season as Doty connected with wide receiver Josh Vann on a 36-yard score. The Gamecocks looked to add one more touchdown in the closing minutes, but the Bulldogs' defense stopped them on fourth-and-goal from the 9-yard line to preserve the 27-point win.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I thought the guys played really hard. So many guys played a big role in this game, seemed like the wealth was spread around defensively and offensively. I thought JT played with a high level of confidence, believed in what our guys could do, and got the ball to our playmakers ... Jake (Camarda) made a huge play, and then, the defense made a huge play. Then we were able to save our timeouts, and it was really big to get those pass plays to set up the field goal. I just thought that was a really good sequence to steal five points."

JT Daniels returned from injury to lead the Georgia passing attack, finishing 23-for-31 for 303 yards and three touchdowns.

- Before the game, the UGA Athletic Association honored five pioneers — Richard Appleby, Horace King, Larry West, Clarence Pope and Chuck Kinnebrew — who 50 years ago became the Bulldogs' first Black scholarship football players, enrolling in 1971. There is now a permanent monument in Reed Plaza that commemorates the trailblazers and their Bulldog careers.
- With a safety, the Bulldogs have 21 scores (17 TDs, 4 Safeties) by either the defense or special teams in the Kirby Smart era. The Bulldogs improved to 18-1 under Smart when they have a non-offensive score. In the first half, following a turnover where South Carolina took over at the Georgia 12, the defense held the Gamecocks to three yards and a 26-yard field goal.
- With the 40-13 win, Georgia now has a 53-19-2 edge in the series history including 20-10 since South Carolina joined the SEC. The Bulldogs are 5-1 against South Carolina under Kirby Smart.
- Georgia's opponents have scored only 23 points in three games, which matches the total through three in 2019.
- With five made PATs, junior placekicker Jack Podlesny extended Georgia's NCAA-record streak to 344 consecutive makes, dating back to the 2014 season. During the streak, six different Bulldog kickers have successfully converted on their attempts.

No. 2 Georgia 62, Vanderbilt 0

Sept. 25, 2021 • Vanderbilt Stadium • Nashville, Tenn.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - The second-ranked Georgia Bulldogs started fast and never looked back in a 62-0 victory over the Vanderbilt Commodores before 32,178 fans at Vanderbilt Stadium and an SEC Network national television audience.

The Georgia defense immediately made their presence known by forcing back-to-back Vanderbilt three-and-outs. On offense, the Bulldogs made quick work as tight end Brock Bowers took an end-around for a 12-yard touchdown before catching a 25-yard touchdown pass on the succeeding Georgia drive.

Back-to-back Commodore turnovers led to the Bulldogs' next two scoring drives. First, wideout Jaylen Johnson forced a fumble on a kickoff, leading to Zamir White punching one in from the goal line. On the very next play from scrimmage, cornerback Christopher Smith recorded his second interception of the year. Two plays later, quarterback JT Daniels found wide receiver Ladd McConkey for a 12-yard touchdown pass, his first career score. After forcing yet another three-and-out, McConkey found the end zone again on a 24-yard end-around run to give the Bulldogs a 35-0 lead in the first quarter.

With the game in control following the first quarter, the Georgia defense continued to exert its will, with Vanderbilt missing a 49-yard field goal early in the second quarter. After tacking on a field goal just before halftime, the Georgia offense, now led by reserve quarterback Stetson Bennett, added to the final margin with two touchdowns in the third quarter. Bowers tallied his third score of the day with a 29-yard touchdown catch, followed by a 4-yard touchdown run from tailback Kenny McIntosh just under two minutes later. Podlesny made his second field goal of the game from 36 yards out late in the period.

In the fourth quarter, running back Daijun Edwards helped the Bulldogs run out the clock, leading to a 15-yard touchdown run with 13 minutes remaining in the game. Later in the period, the Commodores crossed midfield, but the drive was cut short by an interception by cornerback Kamari Lassiter. On the ensuing Vanderbilt possession, the Commodores reached the Georgia 23-yard line, but were stopped on fourth down to close the shutout.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I was proud at how fast the guys started. I'm really proud of our fan base. I thought the turnout was incredible, as it normally is when we come up here. Our guys came out and started fast. That was the goal all week. We talked about starting fast and playing to our standard ... It was a tough atmosphere to play in early on, from warm-ups throughout. We talked about it being early, not letting it be an excuse. If you're going to be elite as a team, you have to be elite all the time, not some of the time. That is how elite teams play. Our guys embraced that and I'm proud of them."

Brock Bowers led Georgia in receiving for the fourth-consecutive game, tallying three touchdowns and 81 all-purpose yards.

- Georgia posted its sixth shutout in the Kirby Smart era and the fourth in an SEC game with the 62-0 victory. This marked Georgia's second biggest margin of victory ever in an SEC game, trailing only a record 75-0 win over Florida in 1942. At halftime, Vanderbilt had 50 yards on 25 plays as the Bulldogs led 38-0. It marked the third time this year that Georgia has blanked a team in the first half. This was Georgia's first shutout since blanking Missouri 27-0 in 2019.
- The 62-point margin of victory was the largest since 2014 when Georgia blanked Troy 66-0. The Bulldogs have won their last three games by at least 27 points, marking the first time they have done that since the 2017 season when they did it six times.
- Freshman TE Brock Bowers had four catches for 69 yards with two touchdown receptions, plus one on the ground. Bowers' first career rushing TD was a 12-yarder on his first career carry while his TD catches covered 25 and 29 yards. He is the second Bulldog to have a rushing and receiving TD in the same game this year, joining James Cook who did it versus South Carolina last week. They were joined by redshirt freshman Ladd McConkey who did it as well in the first half. He notched his first career TD, a 12-yard catch and then his first career rushing TD, a 24-yarder. McConkey ended up with four catches for 62 yards, both career-highs, all coming in the first half.

Oct. 2, 2021 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. - The second-ranked Georgia Bulldogs used its stifling defense, a powerful run game, and some special teams fireworks to take down the eighth-ranked Arkansas Razorbacks before a sold-out crowd of 92,746 spectators and an ESPN national television audience.

Just as they had in prior outings, the Bulldogs got off to a running start. On the first play from scrimmage, quarterback Stetson Bennett faked a handoff to tailback Zamir White and ran right for nine yards, leading to White putting them on the board with a 3-yard touchdown run. On the first Arkansas possession, the Razorbacks committed back-to-back false starts before defensive tackle Devonte Wyatt sacked quarterback K.J. Jefferson on third-and-24. Georgia took over near midfield and used its running game to extend the lead on a 1-yard touchdown from tailback Kendall Milton.

After again stopping the Arkansas offense, Georgia's special teams produced a score as a streaking Dan Jackson blocked a punt in the end zone, which was recovered by White in the end zone. The Bulldogs' remaining second half points came midway through the second quarter as placekicker Jack Podlesny connected from 46 yards out.

On the opening drive of the third quarter, the Georgia defense continued to stifle Arkansas, allowing the offense to run a 10-play drive that concluded with a 30-yard Podlesny field goal at the 10:05 mark. Early in the fourth quarter, White picked up his third touchdown of the game as he scored on a 15-yard scamper to cap an 11-play, 93-yard drive. On Georgia's ensuing drive, after another Arkansas possession lost yardage, tailback Kenny McIntosh ran for 15 yards on fourth-and-1 at the Hogs' 38-yard line. Podlesny capped that drive with a 37-yard field goal that put the Bulldogs up 37-0 with just over three minutes to play.

With one final possession, Arkansas looked to avoid the shutout by moving down the field via the legs of running back AJ Green. On second-and-4 with 25 seconds remaining, reserve quarterback Malik Hornsby missed out on a potential touchdown pass to wideout Jaqualyn Crawford. Unable to score, the Razorbacks posted a pair of first down runs as the clock ran out.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"(Our fanbase) answered the bell today. I think all of you guys will admit that they were elite and we noticed it. To come out there in warmups, and coming out of the tunnel to see every seat full at a noon kick is special. It's special to be at Georgia, and they impacted the game. The first series for Arkansas on offense, our crowd was extremely disruptive. ... The best teams I've ever been around can take on the personality of what they need to take on. I'm really proud of the offensive line. I'm proud of the offensive coaching staff. We did an incredible job game-planning against what is a very good defense."

Nakobe Dean and Devonte Wyatt led a furious Georgia pass rush with 10 combined tackles and three combined sacks.

- For only the third time in school history and the first time since 1976, Georgia posted a shut out a top-10 team with a 37-0 victory over No. 8 Arkansas. It was the first time since 1980 that the Bulldogs had back-to-back shutouts of SEC opponents, doing it against Vanderbilt and Kentucky. Georgia posted its seventh shutout in the Kirby Smart era and the fifth in an SEC game. The other shutouts of top 10 teams came when No. 6 Georgia blanked No. 10 Alabama 21-0 here in 1976, and in 1942, the No. 5 Bulldogs shut out No. 2 Georgia Tech 34-0 in Athens.
- The Bulldogs are now 12-6 against top 10 foes under Kirby Smart including 4-0 at home. Georgia improved to 4-2 when ESPN College GameDay is in town including winning its last four. The Bulldogs are 5-0 under Smart for the third time (2017-19).
- With the 37-0 win, No. 2 Georgia now has a 12-4 edge in the series history over Arkansas. This marked the first shutout in the series history with Arkansas and the largest margin of victory with the series going back to the 1969 Sugar Bowl.
- After Georgia's touchdown drive to open the game, former Georgia All-American golfer Harris English was recognized on the field for his contributions in helping the U.S. Ryder Cup team defeat the European squad at Whistling Straits, Wis. During halftime, many of Georgia's Olympians that competed in Tokyo this summer were celebrated, including swimmers Chase Kalisz and Jay Litherland, who won gold and silver, respectively, in the 400-meter individual medley. Georgia also celebrated its 2021 Circle of Honor inductees: football's All-American lineman Randy Johnson, legendary women's basketball coach Andy Landers, NCAA-champion swimmer Robert Margalis and softball All-American Kim Wendland.

No. 2 Georgia 34, No. 18 Auburn 10

Oct. 9, 2021 • Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. - The second-ranked Georgia Bulldogs traveled down to the Plains and left with a 34-10 victory over the 18th-ranked Auburn Tigers in front of a sold-out crowd of 87,451 spectators at Jordan-Hare Stadium and a CBS television audience.

Auburn came out fast covering 68 yards on 17 plays, culminating in place-kicker Anders Carlson hitting a 24-yard field goal to give the Tigers a 3-0 lead. This marked the first time Georgia has trailed this season, as well as the first points the Georgia defense has given up on the opening drive. After a quick three-and-out by the offense, linebacker Nakobe Dean stepped up and intercepted Tiger quarterback Bo Nix in Auburn territory. Six plays later, placekicker Jack Podlesny hit a 23-yard field goal to tie the game at 3-3.

The defense settled down and forced the Tigers to a three-and-out. Georgia responded with a touchdown on a nine-play, 70-yard drive sparked by a 33-yard catch by tight end Brock Bowers, with tailback Zamir White scoring on the ensuing play. On the next Georgia drive, Bennett unloaded on a pass and hit a wide-open McConkey for a 45-yard gain. Three plays later, Bennett found wideout AD Mitchell for a 3-yard touchdown to give the Bulldogs a 17-3 lead.

With just under two minutes left, Auburn drove the ball down the field to the Georgia 7-yard line. The Tigers drew the Bulldogs offside and opted to bring the offense back out. The ensuing pass was broken up in the end zone by senior defensive back Latavious Brini resulting in a turnover on downs and a 17-3 half-time lead.

Georgia opened the second half with a 10-play drive but failed to score when Podlesny's 43-yard kick hit the upright. The Bulldog defense forced Auburn to turn the ball over on downs for the second time of the night. On the next play from scrimmage, Bennett hit McConkey for a 60-yard bomb. Auburn responded with a long drive that ended with a 6-yard touchdown run by Tank Bigsby. This marked only the second touchdown given up by the Georgia defense this season and the first rushing. The Bulldogs tacked on 10 more points on a 21-yard field goal and a 10-yard rushing touchdown by White en route to victory.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"What a tough environment to play in. I give a lot of credit to Auburn and their fans. They created an electric environment. For a lot of our players, probably over 50 percent or more, they have never played in a road environment. Two of our DNA traits are composure and toughness, and I thought that has never been more evident than it was today. Composure and toughness. The men in that locker room never doubt and never questioned each other... Stetson played a hell of a game. He made plays with his feet. If you go back to that game, there are one, two, three, four really big plays in the game that he made with his athleticism."

Ladd McConkey led Georgia in receiving with five catches for 135 yards, including a 60-yard touchdown in the third quarter.

No. 1 Georgia 30, No. 11 Kentucky 13

Oct. 16, 2021 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. - The top-ranked Georgia Bulldogs continued their unbeaten season with a 30-13 victory over the previously unbeaten, 11th-ranked Kentucky Wildcats before a sold-out crowd of 92,746 at Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium and a CBS television audience.

After a relatively quiet opening quarter, Georgia took the lead on the first play of the second as tailback James Cook scored from 19 yards out on a toss from quarterback Stetson Bennett. On their ensuing possession, the Bulldog offense continued to roll as tailback Kendall Milton ran for 32 yards, followed by a 17-yard run from Cook, setting up Zamir White for a 24-yard touchdown run up the middle.

Facing a 14-0 deficit, Kentucky embarked on a six-minute scoring drive, extended by a Georgia fumble recovery overturned on replay and a pass interference penalty in the red zone, and concluding on a 1-yard pass from Will Levis to Justin Rigg.

In the third quarter, Georgia extended the lead as Bennett found tight end Brock Bowers for a 27-yard touchdown pass, three plays after a 59-yard Bowers score was nullified by penalty. The Bulldogs continued the scoring on their following drive as place kicker Jack Podlesny hit a 26-yard field goal. Trailing 24-7, Kentucky looked to remain in the game, but a 33-yard field goal attempt at the end of the period was blocked by defensive lineman Devonte Wyatt and returned out of the end zone by safety Dan Jackson.

The Bennett-Bowers connection concluded the scoring for Georgia on the first drive of the fourth quarter, first with a 24-yard completion and then on a floating 20-yard touchdown completion. The Wildcats would maintain possession for nearly the full remainder of the game, eventually posting a 22-play, 75-yard possession. After Levis converted on fourth down at the Georgia 15-yard line, Georgia stuffed two consecutive rushes from the 1-yard line, but Kentucky elected to call timeout with only seven seconds remaining, allowing Levis to find Wan'Dale Robinson for a touchdown. However, defensive tackle Jalen Carter blocked the PAT to close out the Bulldogs' 11th-consecutive victory.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I'm proud of our guys today. That was a really physical football team we played. Every single time we play them, it's just tough...I thought our DNA showed through. Our DNA continues to repeatedly show up - composure, connection, resiliency, and toughness - those qualities come through in this team. At halftime, nobody was panicking, nobody was nervous...I think (Todd Monken) has done an incredible job. When you think about the guy he's had in, he's taken tight ends, made them multiple, he's taken wideouts that weren't necessarily early season starters and done a really good job."

Jalen Carter helped power a dominant Georgia front, tallying six tackles, a sack, and a block on Kentucky's closing PAT.

No. 1 Georgia 34, Florida 7

Oct. 30, 2021 • TIAA Bank Field • Jacksonville, Fla.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - The top-ranked Georgia Bulldogs used a 21-point burst before halftime to post a decisive 34-7 victory over the Florida Gators before 76,141 spectators at TIAA Bank Field and a CBS television audience.

Georgia moved quickly on its opening drive following a 31-yard kickoff return from Kearis Jackson, reaching the Florida 19-yard line but Stetson Bennett was flagged for intentional grounding on third-and-1, followed by a missed 46-yard field goal by Jack Podlesny. Like the Bulldogs before, the Gators did not score on a deep drive as Jace Christmann's 51-yard attempt missed.

As the second quarter opened, the Georgia offense came to life starting with a 12-yard completion from Bennett to Jackson, eventually entering the red zone on a 20-yard scamper from Bennett to the 7-yard line. However, another stall forced the Bulldogs to settle for a 21-yard Podlesny field goal. On the ensuing Florida drive, a combined sack by Jalen Carter and Jordan Davis led to a fourth down stop at the Georgia 40.

Taking over at the Florida 34, Bennett found Darnell Washington for a 32-yard completion, but on the subsequent play, Bennett's deep ball was picked off by Rashad Torrence at the 4-yard line. With Florida near its goal line, the Georgia defense stepped up as Nolan Smith stripped Anthony Richardson and set the Bulldogs up at the 11-yard line. In one play, Georgia capitalized as James Cook rushed for a touchdown to make the score 10-0.

On the next drive, Smith notched another turnover as he picked off Richardson's pass off the deflection by Travon Walker. Georgia again took just one play to convert as Bennett hit Jackson for a falling, 36-yard touchdown in the left corner of the end zone. The scoring barrage concluded as Dean picked off Richardson and returned it for a 50-yard touchdown.

Georgia's first possession of the third quarter ended in a fumble, but Christmann missed from 23 yards out. The Gators again reached Bulldog territory to open the fourth quarter but were again stifled as Nakobe Dean broke up Jones' fourth-down pass. Bennett was picked off for the second time by Torrence at the Florida 11. The Gators would avoid the shutout with an Emory Jones touchdown.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"There was great excitement, great energy. Our fans really impacted the game. They helped us get them for a few offsides. The turnovers were the difference in the game. We had a few, too, but theirs were in their territory, and that was probably the biggest difference in the game ... (Stetson Bennett) does a really good job on some plays, and then you are holding your breath when he holds the ball. He has to make good decisions down the field. We can't give the ball away ... That momentum right before the half was just huge. It is what our guys do - they are havoc guys that cause problems, frustrate the quarterback, and try to find different ways to affect them."

Nolan Smith spurred Georgia's first half scoring rally with a forced fumble and his first career interception.

No. 1 Georgia 43, Missouri 6

Nov. 6, 2021 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. - The top-ranked Georgia Bulldogs again rode its stout defense to a 43-6 victory over the Missouri Tigers before a sold-out 92,746 spectators at Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium and an ESPN national television audience.

Missouri struck first with a 36-yard field goal, marking only the second time this season Georgia had trailed. On the ensuing drive, the Bulldogs faced a fourth-and-6 at the Tigers' 35-yard line, allowing Stetson Bennett to find Arian Smith in the corner of the end zone for a go-ahead touchdown. Nolan Smith added to the points with a blocked punt on the following drive, with the ball rolling out for a safety before Dan Jackson could recover for a touchdown. Soon after, Bennett hit Jermaine Burton for a 46-yard completion to the 1-yard line, leading to Zamir White taking it in to extend the first quarter lead.

After stopping the Tigers on fourth down, Georgia's offense continued to roll with Bennett making a long completion to Kenny McIntosh and Brock Bowlers taking a screen pass to the 2-yard line, setting up a 20-yard Jack Podlesny field goal. The second half closed with James Cook taking a direct snap from the 1, once again set up by a near touchdown by Burton.

Burton finally got his score on the first drive of the second half, taking it in from 12 yards out on a screen pass. With a comfortable 33-3 lead, JT Daniels returned to the huddle for the first time since the Vanderbilt game on Sept. 25, completing a 7-yard touchdown to Ladd McConkey on his first possession. Following a tipped interception from Daniels, Missouri would tack on another field goal from 42 yards midway through the fourth quarter, with Podlesny answering on the following drive with a 25-yard make. With just over two minutes remaining, the Tigers sought to narrow the final margin and looked capable of doing so as Tyler Macon found Tauskie Dove for leaping catches of 31 and 28 yards respectively. However, the Georgia defense remained strong at the line with a goal-line stand that kept Missouri in single digits to close the game.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"We started out kind of sloppy today. A little bit of a lack of focus early, especially on defense. Offensively, it took us a while to get going, but once we did, we did some nice things. I was proud of the guys. We're starting to get some guys back, and then we lost a couple of guys who are banged up. All in all, pleased with the guys' effort, but we have some things we have to clean up...(Missouri) played the same defense they've been playing. The played a little better, they changed out a couple of guys personnel-wise, but they didn't change their defense by any means."

Jermaine Burton led Georgia in receiving with three receptions for 76 yards, including a 47-yard catch and a touchdown.

- Georgia, the national leader in Scoring Defense (6.6 ppg), held Missouri to just two field goals in a 43-6 win to improve to 9-0 (7-0 SEC). Also, there was a goal-line stand that ended with three seconds left in the game when the Tigers turned it over on downs. UM came in averaging 34.8 points a game. Georgia now has held eight of its nine opponents to their lowest scoring tally of year, with South Carolina as the exception. The 59 points allowed through nine games is the lowest in a season at this point since 1971 (53 points).
- Nine different Bulldogs caught a pass with four covering more than 20 yards. Sophomore Arian Smith had a 35-yarder for a TD. The longest of the first half came by sophomore Jermaine Burton for 47 yards.
- Georgia blocked its second punt of the year, and this one resulted in a safety as the football went through the end zone. Junior Nolan Smith blocked it. This was the team's second safety this year as the first one came by the defense versus South Carolina when Smith and Jordan Davis combined on a sack. Under Kirby Smart, the Bulldogs now have 24 defensive or special teams scores since 2016. Georgia improved to 21-1 when they register a non-offensive score in the Smart era
- During halftime, Georgia honored former football coach Mark Richt, who spent 15 seasons with the Bulldogs and went 145-51 with a pair of SEC titles and nine bowl wins. The World Series Champion Atlanta Braves were also recognized with outfielder Joc Pederson and mascot Blooper attending the game.

No. 1 Georgia 41, Tennessee 17

Nov. 13, 2021 • Neyland Stadium • Knoxville, Tenn.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - The top-ranked Georgia Bulldogs used a career day from running back James Cook to a 41-17 victory over the Tennessee Volunteers in front of 100,074 fans at Neyland Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

Tennessee quickly moved down the field on its opening drive, using a pass interference penalty to set up a 9-yard touchdown pass from Hendon Hooker to Velus Jones, Jr. Georgia looked to respond on its ensuing possession, with Cook rushing 39 yards to the house for a tying score. After a pair of three-and-outs, the Volunteers reached the Georgia 7-yard line, but were forced to kick a 24-yard field goal and retake the lead.

In the second quarter, Georgia began to assert itself, beginning with a 40-yard field goal by Jack Podlesny, followed by an interception by Derion Kendrick on the next Tennessee drive. Taking over at the Tennessee 40, Cook brought Georgia into the red zone with a 15-yard rush, followed by a 9-yard scoring run by Bennett. The quarter concluded with an 11-play, 90-yard drive capped off by a 23-yard touchdown pass from Bennett to Cook.

On their first drive of the second half, the Volunteers again traveled deep into Bulldog territory, but pressure from Nolan Smith forced an incompletion on fourth down. The Bulldogs regained possession and appeared to stall near mid-field, but a horse collar penalty on Tennessee kept the drive going and allowed for Podlesny to extend the lead with a 26-yard make. Tennessee's next drive mirrored its previous possessions as Hooker was sacked by Channing Tindall on fourth-and-13 at the Georgia 39-yard line.

Early in the fourth quarter, Cook added his third touchdown of the game with a 5-yard run, set up by a 21-yard completion from Bennett to Jermaine Burton. Once again, Tennessee entered the red zone, but Hooker was sacked by Tindall, forcing a fumble recovered by Travon Walker. The Bulldogs finished their scoring with a 5-yard run by Kenny McIntosh, followed by a 12-yard Tennessee touchdown pass from Joe Milton to Cedric Tillman.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"Hats off to Tennessee. I think they've got a really good football team. I think Josh (Heupel) is doing a great job...I can't say enough about the leaders on this team. After that game against Missouri, to have three guys stand up in the locker room after we won 43-6, they said it wasn't acceptable the way we approached the game or the way we handled the game. I knew right then that we were going to be okay this week... There are a lot of things we can work on to get better. You know what I love? It's the men in that locker room beside me. They all know that. Nobody thinks they've arrived."

James Cook tied his career high with 104 yards and two touchdown runs, along with a 23-yard scoring reception.

No. 1 Georgia 56, Charleston Southern 7

Nov. 20, 2021 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. - The top-ranked Georgia Bulldogs improved to 11-0 for the first time since 1982 with a 56-7 victory over Charleston Southern before a sold-out crowd of 92,746 at Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium and an SEC Network+ streaming audience.

Georgia got the opening kickoff and on its first play from scrimmage, running back Zamir White ran up the left side for a 38-yard gain. The promising drive ended when quarterback Stetson Bennett's pass was tipped and intercepted. On the next drive at the 2-yard line, defensive tackle Jordan Davis shifted into the backfield and took the handoff from Bennett, only to have his lunge stopped at the one. Georgia went back with the same play on second down and Davis was able to reach across the goal line for the touchdown.

A few minutes later, running back Kenny McIntosh found the left edge on a fourth-down reception to the outside and sprinted away from everyone on a 32-yard touchdown run with 5:33 left in the first quarter. On Georgia's next offensive play, following a quick three-and-out forced by the defense, White ran 40 yards up the left side for a touchdown and a 21-0 lead. Georgia's defense again got a quick stop and the offense again delivered quickly with a quick screen from Bennett to tight end Brock Bowers, who eluded two defenders and leaped into the end zone.

Cook kept the scoring going early in the second quarter, running the ball in to cap an eight-play drive. JT Daniels entered at quarterback and connected with Bowers on a 7-yard touchdown reception. Late in the second, sophomore running back Daijun Edwards ran the ball in from the 4 to put the Bulldogs up 49-0.

Charleston Southern got on the scoreboard in the third quarter in improbable fashion. The Bucs were facing third-and-6 from their 35-yard line when linebacker Xavian Sorey intercepted a pass. Sorey then was stripped of the ball at the 35 by Garriss Schwarting, who rumbled 65 yards for the return score, making it 49-7. The Bulldogs added one last touchdown on their next drive, with Carson Beck throwing a 9-yard pass to tight end Brett Seither.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"Today is a day to honor (our seniors). One of the coolest atmospheres I've ever been a part of in terms of honoring the seniors...We had a really short message and talked about our book and what we're writing and what the next chapter would hold. And I told them, I wanted them to name the next chapter because I didn't want it to be a boring or monotonous chapter...There were probably about 10 or 15 walk-ons that had never played a snap. And some of them have probably taken somewhere between 5,000 and 10,000 reps on our practice fields and they got to play a snap because of the effort of the guys that played to our standard."

Jordan Davis scored a first quarter rushing touchdown in his final home game at Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium.

No. 1 Georgia 45, Georgia Tech 0

Nov. 27, 2021 • Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA - The top-ranked University of Georgia football team completed its first unbeaten regular season since 1982 with a 45-0 victory over rival Georgia Tech Saturday afternoon before 52,806 spectators at Bobby Dodd Stadium and an ABC national television audience.

After forcing a three-and-out on Tech's first drive, Kearis Jackson set Georgia up with a 22-yard punt return to the Tech 36-yard line, but the Bulldogs were forced to settle for a 38-yard field goal from Jack Podlesny. On the following Georgia drive, the Bulldogs broke into the end zone as Stetson Bennett found Jermaine Burton for a 25-yard touchdown.

As the opening period came to a close, Bennett moved the Bulldogs into Tech territory with a 30-yard completion to Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint, followed by a 15-yard catch and run from Zamir White. Now in the second, Georgia extended the lead as Ladd McConkey took in a screen pass from 11 yards out for a touchdown, assisted by a block from Bowers. The freshman tight end earned a score of his own on the following possession, taking a slant 77 yards to the house and bringing the score to 24-0.

Georgia Tech maintained possession for much of the second quarter, moving into Georgia territory on a 12-play drive lasting just under eight minutes, but the Bulldog defense forced a punt. Following Georgia's first three-and-out of the afternoon, Tech looked to finally reach the scoreboard, but consistent pressure from Nolan Smith kept the score at 24-0.

The Georgia offense continued to roll into the second half, benefitting from a third down pass interference penalty at the Tech 39-yard line. The nine-play, 75-yard drive concluded with a 9-yard touchdown catch by Bowers in the corner of the end zone. The Yellow Jackets again crossed midfield, but a pair of false starts stalled their drive.

Taking over at their own 33-yard line, the Bulldogs wasted no time adding to the lead as McIntosh ran for a 59-yard touchdown. On the ensuing Tech drive, Jamon Dumas-Johnson's sack led to a turnover on downs early in the fourth quarter. Starting near midfield, Daijun Edwards took it in from three yards out, making the score 45-0.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I thought our guys started fast. We challenged them to start fast. I was pleased with no penalties. We had some sloppy series offensively and defensively, but overall, they came out and executed to a standard. They didn't play to the scoreboard, they played to our standard and I was proud of what they were able to do...I'm just proud of the work that George has put in to get back. We've known guys on the team who have had ACLs, it's a mental injury as much as it's a physical injury"

Brock Bowers scored two touchdowns and tallied 100 yards receiving in Georgia's shutout victory over Georgia Tech.
