On 9/23/24 Animal Control Received a 911 call about a black German Sheppard dog attacking another dog at 449 Back Pan Rd Apt B3. Animal Control arrived and the dog was back in its residence. Animal Control and law enforcement tried to get the owners to the door with no response. On 9/24/24 Terry Helton Jr went back to the residence to speak with dog owners when he heard 2 dogs fighting around the building. Upon investigating it was found that the black German Sheppard was fighting with another dog on its own porch. The black German Sheppard was placed on the dog truck and brought to the shelter. It was placed in kennel 13. On 9/25/24 the German Sheppard dog tore through the front gate. I then moved the dog to our big yard gate. The dog climbed the fence and escaped for a short time. I then put the dog back in its original kennel when I fixed the gate. A short time later I heard a commotion from the kennel area and found that the German Sheppard dog had climbed the fence and gotten into the next kennel and attacked another dog. It died a few minutes later. At that time with the history of calls about the dog and its aggressive behavior I decided to euthanize the dog. On 9/26/24 the owner of the German Sheppard dog came to the shelter about her dog. I told her that it

This is Terry with animal control. Things will be a lot better for you if you will come home and talk to me about this dog. If we can't resolve this issue right now, there will be several citations for you. This will be very expensive for you. I will work with you if you will work with me.

I wouldn't have left had it not been an important reason, my best friend is currently giving birth to my god son so I had to come. Kodak has a vet appointment to be fixed on the 30th, next Monday & then will be attending obedient school for 6 weeks afterwards bc they're going to end up having to register him as my service dog. I just can't walk him bc he overpowers me & he's not used to having those kinds of issues when he goes outside. That woman JUST moved in & has been nothing but an issue for my family & for all of this.

I do apologize for having to leave though. I wouldn't have had it not been so important

I can talk with your boyfriend if he will answer the door.

her dog also was not on a leash when this happened, by the way. i didn't see any of it, my boyfriend did but he said hers wasn't leashed either. im sure she will say he was, because most of the time he is leashed so im not sure why she decided not to now knowing these issues are going on unless she's deliberately trying to have my dog in a situation but i dont know. i've lived there for 2 years & my family owns those apartments & we've never had fighting issues where the cops were called he said he isn't there. i'm not sure why he won't answer, it's a long story with him but he's the one who saw the fight but he's deciding to leave it all to me as per usual but i know she has got issues with me bc her sister was on the phone outside deliberately trying to intimidate me the other day so im not surprised if thats what they're trying to do.

I don't have have anything to do

I don't have have anything to do with that. My concern is that your dog is being aggressive towards several people. There are several people here now telling the me that the dog has been aggressive towards them. Right now, and/or your boyfriend are hindering my investigation which is against the law. That's why I say if I could speak with one of you tonight, we could resolve this issue.

Read 9/23/24

yes that's why we're getting him fixed monday, it's been concerning & i can't walk him bc he knows he's bigger than i am so it's just been difficult bc im 5'2", 120 pounds & he's extremely protective of me. we're hoping that will calm him down & my mom has all the documents & stuff to prove this & the oblent school he'll be attending as soon as he's better from the surgery

i am in rome though, so i can't. but i think we're evicting her (not that that's your business either sorry) & kodak hasn't ever bit anyone he just is too protective & scares people & i dont think he'd bite anyone but still it does scare me. but there

Ok well I'm going to leave. I've given you opportunity to resolve this issue tonight, but you refuse to.

im in rome.. I can give you my boyfriends number if you'd like to see if he is still there bc i think he is but he told me he left. i had to be here tonight, its my family & they come first.

i do apologize though i know this is a big mess. but she knew kodak was outside bc we yell and make sure everyone knows when he's outside & she was outside when we yelled it. so why she'd conveniently walk her dog when she knew he was out there without a leash is just super weird. especially after the way they've been trying to intimidate me. so excuse my language but f*ck her

He is bc he's been seen through the door on the balcony. That being said, I'm going to leave and come back another time.

okay that would be just fine.

again, sorry for the perfectly planned out, super convenient -for her- inconvenience.

Is there a better time that I could meet you here?

yes anytime tomorrow should be fine

this is my number so just call me sometime in the morning & i would happy to cooperate.

Ok I will. Thank you

Delivered

of course. sorry again for having to leave.

My legal name is Linda Michelle Coppeak and I am:

Age: 39

Address: 449 Back Penn Rd A-3
Summerville GA 30747

Under Penalty of ~~Perjury~~ Perjury I hereby declaim and affirm that the statement is to the best of My Knowledge, true and correct.

Linda M. Coppeak 09/29/2024

1
On the evening of September 23, 2024 I received a text message from my daughter Irene Coppeak age 14 that I needed to get home because Kodak had just attacked one of our dogs Bean, a one year old husky mix of brown and white color.

I went up to the store to get gas and other items for myself.

I immediately called Irene back to see and assess the situation.

Irene was shaken and scared.

Seeing her discomfort I dropped what I was doing and came immediately home. Upon my arrival and entering my apartment Irene and my son Angell ~~Fast~~ in age rushed to me to tell me what happened. Some kids in our complex were knocking on the door and running away from it as a prank of some sorts. Kids being kids. Irene opened the door to see whom was knocking and Bean our husky tried getting out. She was able to grab him just outside our door to bring him back in. Just as she had done that Kodak ran up and grab Bean by the throat and assumed his attack on him. Brandon Mort, Payton Raglands boyfriend rushed down to the situation to grab Kodak. Payton Ragland never put Kodak on a leash the entire time of me living here since April 1, 2024. He was always allowed to roam around the complex freely while others like us dog owners, leashed our dogs. There had also been several times where Kodak would aggressively chase my upstairs neighbors either on the top of their car or back into their apartment when all they were trying to do was exit or enter their home. Due to Kodak being the way he was several times to my dogs I had to limit the access of when and where my dogs where able to go out to be able to use the bathroom. On several occasions I had to let my dogs out on the porch to use the bathroom because I didn't know if Kodak was out. And when he was he let it known by trying to attack my dogs through out porch railings. Several times neighbors across from me helped me break up the dogs after Kodak whould try attacking my dogs. I was patient with Payton Ragland as she expressed to my several times she was going to get him fixed. I was understanding being that yes Kodak was here first in this complex and my dogs were new in this territory. One day about 2 months before all this I was just home from work and had to take my dogs out. I had to do it one by one to make sure I could control my dogs. I took my other husky Demon out on his lesh not knowing that Kodak was out roaming. I was in the middle of the two buildings in the grassy area of my complex. This is an area where everyone takes their dog to use the bathroom. Along with a few other areas in this complex.

Demon had urinated and was by a bush. I was walking him around a bit once more before taking him in. I looked up and saw Kodak with no leash and no owner around. He started to growl and ran up to Demon faster than I could run with him back to my apartment. He lunged at ~~at Demon~~ Demon attacking him.

I had Demon on his leash so I would pull back on him to try and get him away from Kodak. I ~~also~~ couldn't. I started yelling for help and a young lady and her daughter came to help and pull Kodak off of my dog. By the time they ~~were~~ pulled him off Payton Ragland came down to retrieve Kodak and get him back inside his apartment.

Payton immediately apologized and said I don't know ~~what's~~ wrong with him but stated to me Kodak probably thought that my husky was the other husky that lived here before and Kodak did

Mornings letting my dogs out on the porch, Kodak if out by ~~himself~~ himself would try to jump my banister to get to my dogs. Every time he did this the loud barking and growling would finally alert Payton or Brandon to come and get Kodak to take him back to their apartment.

After so long of going through this I got tired of it, as it was becoming intolerable. I finally sent a message to Payton and to Rachel about the incidences stating I had done everything I could do on my end and that if it happened again I would be contacting animal control.

On the night of the attack with my dog and my daughter 9/23/2024 an officer from the Sheriff department came to my door after trying to get in contact with animal ~~control~~ control. He asked about a dog attacking some one. We told him that Kodak attacked a dog from our knowledge. Just after that the young man from upstairs was out on his balcony saying he called about the dog attacking him.

The deputy listened to mine and my sisters statement then listened to the young mans statement. Terry from Animal Control finally arrived and got both parties statements. Then Terry asked if anyone of us had a contact number for Payton. I told him I had that information and that just before she left that I told her Payton not to leave because the police and animal control were on the way. She still left leaving Brandon Mort upstairs in their apartment with Kodak. Terry tried contacting Payton by calling and texting Payton and Rachel Ragla of the situation and neither came back or showed up. The officer and Terry both went to the door and knocked several times announcing their ~~selves~~ selves. Neighbors across from us told us and the officer that Brandon was in fact in the apartment as they could see him passing by the cloths hanging on the balcony of the apartment. He never answered the door though. Terry and the officer let me know that they ~~are~~ would have to come back the following day to handle situation in a legal manner. 9/24/2024 I was at work and at 2:16 pm I recieved a long message from Payton that was very unnecessary with some name calling and denile of her neglagence. I simply told her that her lack of accountibilty in the situation was ~~the~~ the reason for the way she felt. I went home to only find that my dog Bean was having involuntary movements and not acting as he normally does. We were concerned and called Animal Control to ask if there was any update on the other dog as far as if he had been picked up or had rabies. A lady at the shelter said Mr. Terry was going to contact us. Terry then called and said he wasn't sure of the rabies but was at the complex earlier and did see Kodak out without a lesh or owner and took him to the shelter. He told me to get our dog to the vet as soon as possible and that I did I went to the Northwest Emergency Pet Clinic in Rome GA at 5pm for them to tell me now that Bean had a puncture wound on his neck and ear and was most likely setting up infection. So they sent us home with antibiotics to take care of the infection from the attack made by Kodak.

The following day there were lies about the whole situation on Facebook by Payton Ragland saying that I paid off the Animal Shelter to kill Kodak. That's not true as I had before on 9/22/2024 my ~~bank~~ bank account comprimized by a skimmer and had ~~to~~ a fraud case started for the negative balance of -$89⁰⁰. As a dog lover myself I would never do something like that. That's why I tried so hard to prevent all this from happening. I know and understand the consequences of not leshing your dog. And to stop the threats towards me from Payton.

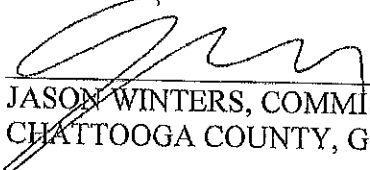

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, an Animal Control Ordinance was previously adopted on August 28, 2001, and

WHEREAS, the County desires to repeal, in its entirety, the previous animal control ordinance and adopt in its place the ordinance attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

CHATTOOGA COUNTY ANIMAL CONTROL ORDINANCE

Section 1. Definitions

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this ordinance, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Domesticated animal means any animal raised so as to live in close proximity to humans. Such animals include dogs, cats, poultry, livestock or reptiles.

Domesticated animal at large means any domesticated animal not under the restraint of a person capable of controlling it on or off the premises of the owner.

Exotic animal means any live alligator, crocodile, canine, fox, bear, sea mammal, poisonous snake, member of the feline species other than domestic cat (felis domesticus), member of the canine species other than domestic dog (canus familiaris) or any other animal that would require a standard of care and control greater than that required for customary domestic animals or household pets sold by commercial pet shops, or required for traditional farm animals. Exotic animal also means those animals as defined in Chapter 5 of Title 27 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated.

Wild animal means any live monkey, nonhuman primate, raccoon, skunk, fox, leopard, panther, tiger, lion, lynx or any other warm blooded animal that can normally be found in the wild state. The term "wild animal" does not include: domestic dogs (excluding hybrids with wolves, coyotes or jackals), domestic cats (excluding hybrids with ocelots or margays), farm animals, rodents, any hybrid animal that is part wild, a captive breed species of common cage birds. Wild animals shall also mean those animals as defined in Chapter 5 of Title 27 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated.

Wild carnivore means any meat eating wild animal (as defined above) including, but not limited to, members of any species in the order carnivora, the order primates, or the class reptilia, if the species eats meat as a part of a normal diet.

Owner means any person who owns, possesses, harbors or keeps or knowingly permits an animal to be harbored or kept or has an animal in his care or who permits an animal to remain on or about his premises for more than three days.

Public nuisance means any animal that unreasonably annoys humans, endangers the life or health of other animals or persons or substantially interferes with the rights of citizens other than its owner to enjoyment of life or property. The term "public nuisance" means and includes, but is not limited to any animal that:

- (1) Is found at large;
- (2) Damages the property of anyone other than its owner;
- (3) Chases vehicles;
- (4) Attacks other domestic animals;
- (5) Unprovoked, attacks pedestrians or passersby;
- (6) Has been found by the animal control officer to be a public nuisance animal by virtue of being a menace to the public health, welfare, or safety;
- (7) Habitually barks, howls, crows, or makes any other loud noises in such a way as to at any time, day or night causes, annoyance or discomfort to people living in the neighborhood;
- (8) Soils, defiles or defecates on public or private property other than the property of the owner/keeper unless it is immediately removed and properly disposed of by the owner/keeper.

Vaccination means a protection against rabies by inoculation with anti-rabies vaccine given in an amount sufficient to provide immunity from rabies for a minimum of one year.

Section 2. Animal Control Officer

(a) There is created the office of animal control officer which officer shall enforce this ordinance. The county may at any time and from time to time contract or enter into an agreement with any other municipality, county or combination thereof for staffing the position of animal control officer.

(b) The animal control officer is authorized to issue citations to persons violating this ordinance for trial in the Magistrate Court of Chattooga County upon such citations.

(c) The animal control officer, as well as employees and agents of the animal control officer and persons under his control and supervision are empowered to seize animals as required by this ordinance so long as the animals are within the unincorporated areas of the county. The employees and agents of the animal control officer and persons under his control and supervision shall have the right to go on private property within the unincorporated areas of the county for the purposes of enforcing this ordinance provided it is necessary for such purpose.

Section 3. Magistrate Court Jurisdiction

The Magistrate Court of the county shall have jurisdiction over all alleged violations of this ordinance.

The following persons have standing to file complaints for violations of this article:

- (1) The animal control officer or his agent;
- (2) Other law enforcement officers;
- (3) Public health officials;

Section 4. Unlawful Interference by Third Parties

(a) No person within the unincorporated areas of the county shall, without the knowledge or consent of the owner, hold or retain possession of any animal that he does not own for more than seventy-two hours without first reporting the possession of such animal to the animal control officer. This subsection shall not apply to those nonprofit organizations whose purpose is protection of animals.

(b) No person within the unincorporated areas of the county shall willfully cause an animal to be in violation of any section of this ordinance.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any person within the unincorporated areas of the county to attack, assault, or in any way physically or verbally threaten or interfere with the animal control officer or his agents in the performance of those duties required to enforce this ordinance.

(d) It shall be unlawful to tamper with, destroy or take any trap which has been set by the animal control officer or his agents.

Section 5. Vaccinations

All dogs and cats within the unincorporated areas of the county must be vaccinated against rabies with the vaccine and in the manner prescribed by the state veterinarian and the state board of health. Vaccinated dogs and cats shall be provided with the proper tag. The owner of every dog or cat vaccinated shall obtain from a veterinarian a certificate of such information.

Section 6. Prohibited Activities

(a) Generally. The following activities shall be prohibited and the owner shall be subject to the issuance of a warning from the animal control officer upon the first offense; a person who commits a subsequent offense shall be punished pursuant to Section 9 of this ordinance:

(1) Animals running at large. It is unlawful for any owner to cause or allow an animal to run at large in or on any public property, vacant lot or private property within the unincorporated area of the county without the consent of the property owner.

- (2) Animals disturbing the peace. It is unlawful for any person to allow any animal in his possession or control within the county to persistently or continuously bark, howl, or make noise common to its species or otherwise to disturb the peace and quiet of the surrounding neighborhood. It shall likewise be unlawful to keep or maintain any such animal in such a manner as to produce obnoxious or offensive odors or to otherwise endanger the health and welfare of the surrounding inhabitants.
- (3) Dog control. No person owning or otherwise having a dog in his care, charge, control, custody or possession within the unincorporated areas of the county shall cause, permit or allow such dog to be in or upon any public area unless such dog is under restraint by leash or chain. The leash or chain shall not exceed six feet in length.
- (4) Cat control. No person owning or otherwise having a cat in his care, charge, control, custody or possession within the unincorporated areas of the county shall cause, permit or allow such cat to be in or upon any public area unless such cat is physically restrained.
- (5) Keeping of sick or diseased animals. It is unlawful for any person within the county to own any animal that is seriously sick or injured and that is not provided with proper veterinary care. This subsection shall not be construed to include animals under active veterinary care or in veterinary hospitals.
- (6) Shelter requirements. Animals within the unincorporated areas of the county shall be confined only within an enclosed fence area of sufficient height to contain said animal. Animals confined by fence shall be provided shelter which shall meet the following minimum requirements:

- (a) The housing facility shall be structurally sound and maintained in good repair to protect the animal from injury and to contain the animal.
- (b) Enclosures shall be constructed and maintained to provide sufficient space to allow each animal adequate freedom of movement.
- (c) Minimum standards of sanitation necessary to provide humanly clean conditions for both indoor and outdoor enclosures shall include periodic cleaning to remove excretions and other waste materials, dirt and trash to minimize health hazards.

(d) When sunlight is likely to cause heat exhaustion of an outside animal, sufficient shade by natural or artificial means shall be provided to protect the animal from direct sunlight.

(7) Keeping of farm or game animals. It shall be unlawful for any person to keep or maintain livestock including, but not limited to, fowl, goats, pigs, cattle, mules, horses, sheep, swine, or any other farm or game animal in the county except as follows:

- (a) Larger than ten (10) acres. On any property that is larger than ten acres, there are no restrictions in this ordinance as to the number of livestock that may be kept. Other applicable provisions as to type, adequate shelter, humane care, and so forth, must be obeyed.
- (b) Larger than two (2) acres, but equal to or less than ten (10) acres. On property that is larger than two acres, but equal to or less than ten acres, limited numbers of livestock animals are permitted. No more than eight (8) livestock animals total shall be permitted on property in this size range or no more than twenty (20) chickens; if both chickens and other livestock animals are kept, no more than eight animals total shall be permitted. Further, either a single chicken coup, or a single minor livestock enclosure for up to eight animals may be erected for housing livestock, but not both.

- (c) Equal to or less than two (2) acres. On any property that is equal to or less than two acres, it shall be unlawful to possess or keep any livestock.

In addition, all feed lots, poultry facilities and other livestock confinement facilities or structures designed to or capable of housing or confining more than one hundred (100) animals or birds shall have a setback of at least five hundred (500) feet from any property line and a setback of at least one thousand five hundred (1500) feet from any preexisting residence. For poultry facilities, the rules set forth in the previous ordinance of this County shall prevail.

- (8) Cruelty. It shall be unlawful to abandon any animal or fail to provide it with sufficient wholesome and nutritious food and water in sufficient quantities, proper air, shelter, space and protection from the weather. No person shall beat, cruelly treat, torment, or otherwise abuse an animal.
- (9) Animal fights. It is unlawful for any person to promote, stage, hold, manage, conduct, carry on, train for, attend or own any animal for the purpose of participating in any game, exhibition, contest or fight in which one or more animals are engaged for the purpose of injuring, killing, maiming or destroying themselves or any other animal.

- (10) Female dogs or cats in heat. It shall be unlawful for the owner of any female dog or cat to allow the animal to run at large while in heat.
- (11) Vaccination. All dogs and cats shall have proper tags evidencing vaccinations as provided in Section 5 of this ordinance.
- (12) Destruction of property. No animal shall destroy or damage private or public property.

Section 7. Impoundment

(a) Any animal seized and impounded under any of the sections of this ordinance shall be detained for a period of five business days. If the ownership of the animal is not determined within that period the animal shall be disposed of in such a manner as the animal control officer may designate. Any animal seized that is wearing identification tags shall be kept for ten days and then the animal control officer shall attempt to notify the owner by writing or phone if possible.

(b) If at any time during the required waiting period set forth in subsection (a) of this section, the owner indicates to the animal control officer his intention to not reclaim the animal the balance of the waiting period shall be waived and the animal shall be disposed of pursuant to this section.

(c) If at any time during the required waiting period examination of the animal by the animal control officer indicates the animal to be severely sick and or to be a threat to the health or other animals detained in the impoundment the balance of the waiting period shall be waived and the animal shall be disposed of pursuant to this section.

(d) Nothing in this section shall prevent the animal control officer from euthanizing an animal when he determines that it is a menace to the public safety or to other animals and can not be impounded with reasonable effort.

Section 8. Number of Animals

(a) Dogs. The following restrictions apply to the maximum number of dogs that may be possessed or kept on property or premises:

(1) Larger than two (2) acres. On any residential property that is larger than two acres, there shall be no restriction on the number of dogs allowed to be possessed or kept, provided all other applicable provisions of this Ordinance are obeyed, however, any such property that contains more than six (6) dogs shall be required to maintain those animals in an enclosure at least one hundred feet from the nearest property line.

(2) Larger than one (1) acre, but equal to or less than two (2) acres. On any residential property that is larger than one acre, but equal to or less than two acres, it shall be unlawful to possess or keep more than six dogs.

(3) Equal to or less than one (1) acre. On any residential property that is equal to or less than one acre, it shall be unlawful to possess or keep more than three (3) dogs.

(4) Multi family units. For any dwelling unit in a multifamily development (e.g., apartment, condominium, town home, mobile home parks, duplex, triplex, quadplex or similar) it shall be unlawful to possess or keep more than three (3) dogs. The overall acreage of the development or property shall not control.

(b) Cats. The following restrictions apply to the maximum number of cats that may be possessed or kept on property or premises, based on the area of the lot. Other applicable regulations shall still apply and should be consulted for restrictions on location of shelters and enclosures and other restrictions.

(1) Larger than two (2) acres. On any residential property that is larger than two acres, there shall be no restriction on the number of cats permitted, provided all other applicable provisions of this Ordinance are obeyed.

(2) Equal to or less than two (2) acres. On any residential property that is equal to or less than two acres, it shall be unlawful to possess or keep more than six cats;

(3) Multi family units. For any dwelling unit in a multifamily development (e.g., apartment, condominium, town home, mobile home parks, duplex, triplex, quadplex or similar) it shall be unlawful to possess or keep more than six (6) cats.

The overall acreage of the development or property shall not control.

(c) Other provisions. The limits on dogs and cats are independent. For example, a 1.5 acre parcel would allow up to six dogs and up to six cats. For litters of offspring, see Section 9.

Section 9. Animal Breeding; Pet Dealers

(a) Breeding restrictions. It shall be unlawful for any person to breed animals on any property or premises except as specifically permitted in this ordinance. However, it shall be permissible for any household to have one litter per year (total, not per animal). In instances where a new litter causes a violation of Section 8, the new litter shall be exempt from the provisions of Section 8 for up to twelve (12) weeks from the date of birth. Any more than one litter per household, per year, shall make such person a pet dealer.

(b) Livestock breeding restrictions. Persons breeding livestock shall comply with applicable state regulations and laws.

(c) Operations requiring licensing. It shall be unlawful for any person to act as a pet dealer or private animal shelter unless such person has a valid license issued by the Georgia Department of Agriculture, pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 4-11-1 et seq and applicable state regulations.

(d) Care of operations. It shall be unlawful to fail to keep the pet dealership premises, breeding operation or animal shelter in a good state of repair, in a clean sanitary condition, adequately ventilated, or disinfected when needed.

(e) Impoundment of animals from unlicensed operations. Animals kept by or at any unlicensed pet dealer or private animal shelter are subject to immediate impoundment at the owners expense.

Section 10. Conflict With Other Ordinances

To the extent any provision of this ordinance conflicts with any provision of an applicable ordinance or any other ordinance, statute or law, the stricter requirement shall control.

Section 11. Keeping of Exotic or Wild Animals

(a) Exotic or wild animals unlawful. It shall be unlawful for anyone to own, harbor or permit at large any exotic animal or wild animal within the incorporated areas of Chattooga County without the written permission of the director of animal control who may impose upon the owner reasonable conditions of confinement to assure the protection and safety of the general public. Such conditions shall be imposed pursuant to and in relation to the threat posed by the species to other animals and to humans from attacks, bites, disease, nuisance, noise, order, or any similar harm. If a questions arises as to the status of an animal as domestic or exotic, the animal control director shall make the determination.

(b) Wild carnivore is not permitted. No wild carnivores (including, but not limited to, tigers, chetahs, pumas, leopards, jaguars, lynx, bobcats, mountain lions, wolves, foxes, bears, raccoons, weasels, badgers, skunks, mongooses and hyenas shall not be kept as pets nor for any other purpose in Chattooga County.

Section 12. Repealer

Upon its effective date, any ordinance or parts of an ordinance contradictory to the provisions of this Ordinance are repealed.

Section 13. Penalty

Any person violating any provision of this ordinance, upon conviction, shall be subject to a fine of not less than $250.00 nor more than $1,000.00 and, in addition, may be imprisoned for a period of up to sixty days.

So adopted this 24th day of July, 2017, the public health, safety and general welfare demanding.

Diagnosis [presumptive]: minor dog fight wounds
-bit by dog that was euthanized and rabies tested yesterday (9/24/24)

Prognosis: good

Plan:

- rx. cephalexin 500mg (14) 1 BID with food until gone
- p should be quarantined and monitored in vet clinic for 10 days/until results from rabies test come back from dog that bit p

Client communication:

Bean has some minor wounds from the dog fight. He does not have any neurologic deficits at this time. One of the wounds (the one on the left side of the neck) has a little swelling and a bit of drainage, so I do have concerns about this developing an abscess. Recommend antibiotics, monitor closely over next few days, keep area clean/dry, warm compress to encourage drainage. Since the dog that bit Bean has unknown rabies status, Bean is unvaccinated, and we are waiting results from animal control, Bean should be quarantined at a vet clinic at least until those results come back. O states that this is not doable for her due to her work schedule.

DISCHARGE INSTRUCTIONS:

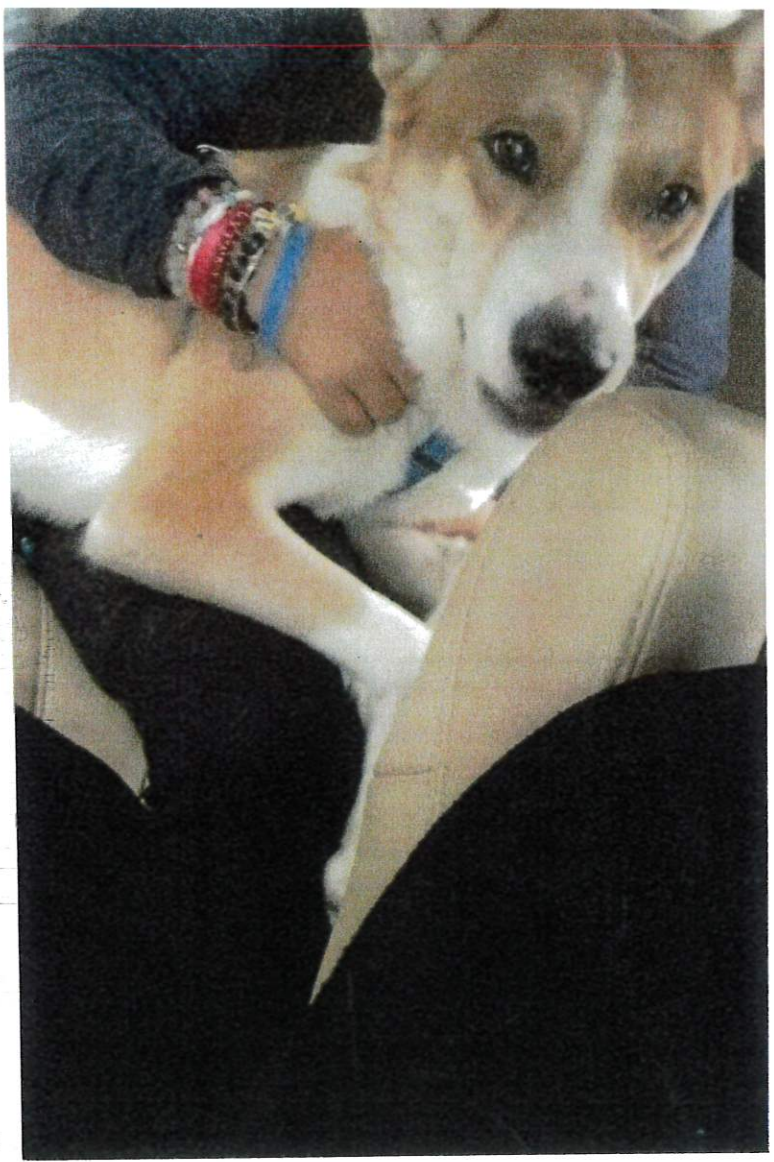

Medications to go home:

1. Cephalexin 500mg (14): Give 1 capsule orally every 12 hours with food until gone.

The examination and treatment which your pet received was rendered on an emergency basis only. It was not intended to be a substitute for, or an effort to provide, complete veterinary medical care. In most cases, your pet will need to be seen by your primary care veterinarian for follow up treatment and further medical care. It is impossible to recognize and treat all injuries or illnesses in a single emergency visit. If problems or questions arise during a time in which your veterinarian is not available, please do not hesitate to return or call us with questions. If at any time your pet's progress is not what you believe it should be, please contact a veterinarian. Please use the medication as directed. Please follow the administration of all tablets or capsules with a small amount of water so the medication does not get stuck in the patient's throat. As a general rule whenever medication is dispensed, only a few days supply is given, even if a longer course of therapy is needed. The reason for this policy is for you to contact your primary care veterinarian to let him/her know how your pet is progressing with therapy. Your primary care veterinarian can decide if your pet needs to be rechecked and if medication needs to be changed/stopped and/or refilled. This will assure your pet gets the proper care.

(11) Vaccination. All dogs and cats shall have proper tags evidencing vaccinations as provided in Section 5 of this ordinance.

(12) Destruction of property. No animal shall destroy or damage private or public

Section 7. Impoundment

(a) Any animal seized and impounded under any of the sections of this ordinance shall be detained for a period of five business days. If the ownership of the animal is not determined within that period the animal shall be disposed of in such a manner as the animal control officer may designate. Any animal seized that is wearing identification tags shall be kept for ten days and then the animal control officer shall attempt to notify the owner by writing or phone if possible.

(b) If at any time during the required waiting period set forth in subsection (a) of this section, the owner indicates to the animal control officer his intention to not reclaim the animal the balance of the waiting period shall be waived and the animal shall be disposed of pursuant to this section.

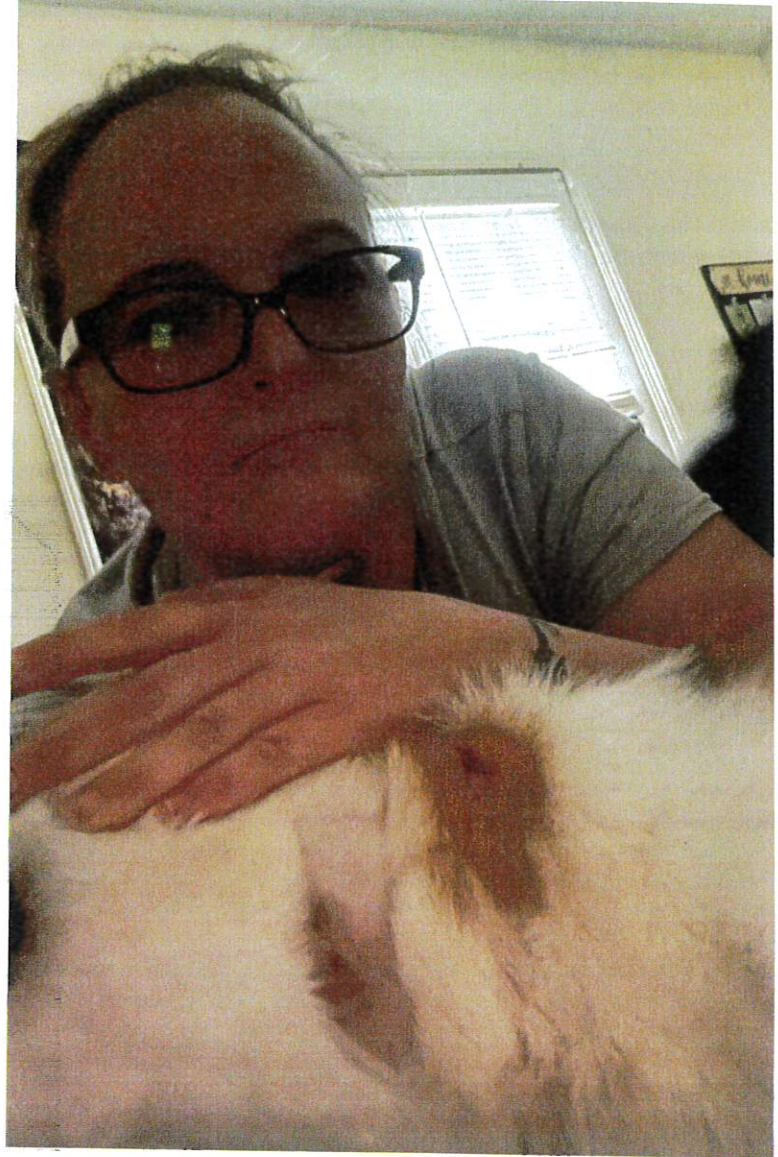

(c) If at any time during the required waiting period examination of the animal by the animal control officer indicates the animal to be severely sick and or to be a threat to the health or other animals detained in the impoundment the balance of the waiting period shall be waived and the animal shall be disposed of pursuant to this section.

(d) Nothing in this section shall prevent the animal control officer from euthanizing an animal when he determines that it is a menace to the public safety or to other animals and can not be impounded with reasonable effort.

(11) Vaccination. All dogs and cats shall have proper tags evidencing vaccinations as provided in Section 5 of this ordinance.

(12) Destruction of property. No animal shall destroy or damage private or public property.

Section 7. Impoundment

(a) Any animal seized and impounded under any of the sections of this ordinance shall be detained for a period of five business days. If the ownership of the animal is not determined within that period the animal shall be disposed of in such a manner as the animal control officer may designate. Any animal seized that is wearing identification tags shall be kept for ten days and then the animal control officer shall attempt to notify the owner by writing or phone if possible.

(b) If at any time during the required waiting period set forth in subsection (a) of this section, the owner indicates to the animal control officer his intention to not reclaim the animal the balance of the waiting period shall be waived and the animal shall be disposed of pursuant to this section.

(c) If at any time during the required waiting period examination of the animal by the animal control officer indicates the animal to be severely sick and or to be a threat to the health or other animals detained in the impoundment the balance of the waiting period shall be waived and the animal shall be disposed of pursuant to this section.

(d) Nothing in this section shall prevent the animal control officer from euthanizing an animal when he determines that it is a menace to the public safety or to other animals and can not be impounded with reasonable effort.

on my gosh, I'm the worst. Texter ever but yes, he is up here with me. Lol I'm so sorry.

It's OK I've already taken them out

Fri, Sep 6 at 5:03 PM

Hi payton can you please put Kodak up? I've gotta let my dogs out real quick.

Hello

god im so sorry, im gonna send you brandon's number for when i don't answer, im so bad with my phone dude its sad. hang on ill send it to you so you can have us both

No ma'am, do not send me your old man's number no ma'am okay i'm so sorry im trying to get better with the phone thing i just never know where it even is half the time

And don't get me wrong you know
I love Dax, but this is for his safety

he is getting fixed on the 30th and then he'll go straight into service dog training for like 6 weeks but he overpowers us so i can't walk him on a leash or even give him a bath. but i'll let you know every time i let him out i'll let you know. i just genuinely don't know what to do with him bc he knows he's bigger than i am. he only listens to my ex but he's abusive so i couldn't keep letting him stay here i am praying the surgery will calm him down though i have a leash but he broke my thumb and messed my wrist up badly last time i tried to walk him it's been really annoying i am so also found out that Dax has attacked my dog while in the hands of my daughter just a few weeks ago. I have sent you messages letting you know that I'm taking my dogs out and I've tried calling as well to avoid things from escalating. And you have sometimes answered and sometimes not resulting in Dax continuously attacking my dogs even when they are on my porch. It is a county law that any dog must be leashed no longer than six feet when in public spaces. I'm asking that you please for Dax safety and my dogs as well as others in our community to leash him. Stop just letting him out and letting him roam without you. I have heard him several times trying to attack the neighbors as well when coming home and leaving. I'm attaching the pdf laws for Chattooga County on this matter. This is just woman to woman please take care of him thank you.

unrump and messed my wrist up badly last time i tried to walk him it's been really annoying. i am so sorry

I keep I keep hearing this time after time payton you need to control him. You need to put him on a leash every single time he goes out and as soon as he has finished, you need to take him back upstairs that is the law everyone else in this community follows those directions and you need to as well.

You not being able to control him, puts it at a point to where when animal control is called they will take him from you. Please understand that and that is one thing I do not want to happen to him or you please get it under control.

okay i'll see if my mom can maybe someone to walk him for me or something but me nor my friend have been able to see what I am talking about but my dad and my ex are having to come with us on the 30th bc we won't be able to handle him ourselves, i can have her message you as well

If you know, your friend can take him out and control him then it is going to come down to you literally cleaning up after him and your apartment. I have had to do the same thing with my dogs because of this whole situation and it is not cool. I am trying to be very understanding with you on this and it is just getting ridiculous at this point. Please stop making excuses. Please stop making excuses and take responsibility for him.

It's OK I'll contact your mom myself okay well he is getting fixed on the 30th & he's never had any issues except for with the last person except for with the last person who lived in that apt until recently, he just grew up running around here & is just alpha idk. but that's fine

Payton he attacks the neighbors every single day i know. he lets me know when he's about to leave so i can put kodak up. the dogs thing is one thing bc they're dogs but he's not too fond of some black men due to past circumstances but i will get it figured out, ive been trying to & we've been doing the best we can with it. im unable to work so i sell clothes from home & have been saving up for this surgery for like ever. but again i am sorry & doing the best i know how to but he's always played with the kids & we've never had any issues until recently. he doesn't like the guy across from me & doesn't like the people across the parking lot no excuse tho bc some people are just scared of dogs & i get that this has just always been his territory so it's been difficult teaching him new ways he isn't used to that i should've been practicing from the beginning

I'm going to let you know that if Dax attacks my dogs again under any circumstances, I'm calling animal control or my children with their dogs on their leash I have to protect my kids

& my time w friends/family was my priority over taking part in an extremely unnecessary theatrical drama production involving the police over a dog fight... which i think could qualify as like .. unhinged & definitely extremely unnecessary.

i also wasn't sure if you read the lease agreement you signed when you got your apt, but one of the conditions of our lease agreements for every rental property is no police activity unless absolutely necessary for obvious reasons & if i'm not mistaken, that's the second or third time you've called them just since you moved in i believe? my mother reminded me and you're one of, if not the newest resident here so if you didn't know that, i figured that would be an important thing to be made aware of. we've lived here for over 2 years & the only issues like that we've ever had was w my friends husky who lived in the apt you're in now, but koda was a puppy & his dog was big, so he didn't instigate them then.

anyway, kodak is not an aggressive dog unless he's around another dog who is not fixed, bc that's obviously/naturally/inevitably what like all dogs do or when he has a bad feeling about someone, which you & i actually had a conversation about stating that they're dogs & they're just being protective so we cant fault them for doing what they're supposed to do, those were my words as well as yours.
additionally, the tension between owners now is very much not helping the situation, in fact it is completely counterproductive, so why it had to be made into a soap opera, resulting in making the situation worse is just.. stupid.
but my best friend said that she even offered to set up times to let the dogs out but you refused to even consider that.. instead you just ignored her & immediately threatened the one the other

I have ADHD & can't even find my phone half the time & i have stated & made that very clear, i apologized, & offered backup #'s for you when you can't get ahold of me but you didn't want them either. i'm more than happy to reoffer all of the above. either way, they're both very naturally protective breeds- doesn't excuse that behavior but it is what it is. the issue with your dog & the guy across the hall from me is why kodak is getting fixed next monday & going as far as attending obedient school for at least 2 weeks once he is healed from surgery, all of which is extremely expensive & is definitely going to take time & be a lot to deal with. i just am not understanding why it escalated to this so quickly when potential solutions/compromises were offered by more than just me, multiple different times... so like maybe you could do the same & also get your dog fixed or any & all opportunities to ever breed Kodak, spending substantial amount of money & time doing more than my part to try & help this situation...

productively.

You're non-accountability has caused all of this even a judge would tell you so I've contacted your mother about the threats and I also contacted your mother about what happened last night OK so do you have anything to say you can now go and cry to her and give her all of your excuses, cause
I'm so over your ass ass

And just so you know, I've only had the cops over there once and that was on your dog

And all you had to do was put him on a leash

And not run like I told you to last Night

Yesterday 10:56 PM

you better watch your fucking back bitch. and don't save this as evidence of a threat, save it as a promise.

Today 12:08 AM

While you're there talking to that cop, tell him to give my dad a call. And we also would like to know how your sister knew that he was euthanized yesterday because she knocked on the girl in A-2s door and told her that he'd been euthanized right after his location on his pinged for the last time.
